Manbhum.

No. L R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following general rules for the district of Manbhum, to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by Notification No 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, to carry out the objects of the said Act:—

CHAPTER I.—GENERAL.

1. In carrying out the following rules Revenue officers shall have regard to the instructions of the Board of Revenue for the guidance of Revenue officers, so far as such instructions are consistent with the rules herein prescribed.

2. Except where otherwise provided by law or by these rules, all proceedings and orders of Revenue officers, passed in the discharge of any duty imposed upon them by or under this Act, shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner and the Board of Revenue, and the orders of each Revenue officer under this Act shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Revenue officers to whom he may be declared by the Board of Revenue to be, for the purpose of the Act, subordinate.

The Deputy Commissioner and the Commissioner in whose jurisdiction operations under these rules are in progress shall be entitled to inform themselves of the nature and progress of such operations.

3. Where no other mode of service is prescribed by the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, or by any rules (other than this rule) made thereunder, service of a notice or summons, where it is addressed to one person, shall be effected in the following manner:—(a) by delivering the same to the person to whom it is directed, or to any adult member residing in the house of that person; (b) on failure of such delivery, by posting the same on some conspicuous part of the house in which the said person usually resides; or by delivering it to a general agent of the person to whom it is directed; or to any person who has been appointed in that behalf; or (c) by sending a registered letter containing the notice or summons directed to the said person at his usual place of abode; or (d) if no such place of abode can be found and if the notice or summons cannot be served in any of the modes hereinbefore mentioned, by posting the same at the landlord's office in the village, or at some conspicuous place on the land, to which the notice or summons relates. If it is addressed to a number of persons occupying or owning land in the same village, the notice will either be served in the manner prescribed above, or by proclamation and beat of drum, and by posting it, in the presence of not less than two persons who should be residents of the village or at least cultivating raiyats in it, in some conspicuous place in the village and also by fixing it up in the village office, if any, where the rent is usually paid.

CHAPTER II.

The rules prescribed in this Chapter are to be followed by Revenue officers in preparing a record-of-rights and settling rents under Chapter XII of the Act. With them are included the rules to be followed in the commutation of praedial conditions under Chapter XIII, the record of landlords' privileged lands under Chapter XIV and the record of special rights under Chapter XV, where such operations are conducted simultaneously with the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter XII.

4. Every Revenue officer appointed by the Local Government under the designation of Settlement officer or Assistant Settlement officer for the above purposes is hereby vested with—

(i) all the powers exercisable by Revenue or Civil Courts in the trial of suits;
(ii) powers to enter upon any land, and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same;
(iii) all the powers of an Assistant Superintendent of Survey and a Deputy Collector under the Bengal Survey Act, 1875; and
(iv) power to cut and thresh the crops on any land and weigh the produce, with a view to estimating the capabilities of the soil.

5. In the case of an uninhabited village, any general notice to be served or publication to be made under the rules in this Chapter may be served or made in any inhabited village contiguous to that village, or, if there be no inhabited village contiguous to that village, in the inhabited village nearest to that village, or in the village in which the tenants and occupants of the lands of the uninhabited village are believed by the Revenue officer to reside.

6. The procedure of settlement shall include—

I.—Demarcation of boundaries.
II.—Field measurement.
III.—Khanapuri, i.e., preliminary preparation of the record.
IV.—Attestation of the record (including the commutation of produce rent and of praedial conditions.
V.—Publication of the draft record
VI.—Disposal of objection under sections 83 and 111 (6).
VII.—Settlement, if any, of fair rents, before final publication.
VIII.—Final publication of the record-of-rights.
IX.—Distribution of copies of the record-of-rights to parties interested.
X.—Settlement, if any, of fair rents, after final publication, under section 85.
XI.—The trial of suits under sections 87, 111 (8), 130 and 252.
XII.—Revision of any orders or decisions, as provided in section 89.
XIII.—Correction of bonâ fide omissions or mistakes in the record-of-rights, as provided in section 90.
XIV.—Deposit of settlement records with Deputy Commissioner.

I.—Demarcation of boundaries.

7. Where there is a dispute as to a village boundary, the Revenue officer shall decide the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Bengal Survey Act, 1875.

8. Boundary pillars of a permanent nature shall be erected at every point where the boundaries of three or more villages meet, and may be erected wherever the Revenue officer considers it necessary to define by pillars the boundaries of estates or tenures or of lands which have been the subject of dispute.

II.—Field Measurement.

9. A field map of every village shall be prepared; it shall show the boundaries of every field separately held, or of such plot of land as the instructions of the Board of Revenue for giving effect to these rules may lay down.

III.—Khanapuri, i.e., preliminary preparation of the record.

10. The following are the principal documents to be prepared in the course of a survey and the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter XII of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908:—

Village map.	Parchas.	Khatian.
Khasra.	Khewat.	Terij.

These and any other papers prescribed by the Board of Revenue shall be prepared in such manner as the Board may prescribe.

11. The record-of-rights, which shall be published under section 83 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be contained in the khewat and khatian, and such other papers as may be specified by general or special order of the Board of Revenue in the case of any local area.

12. (a) The khewat shall show the character and extent of the interests of proprietors and tenure-holders, such of their interests as are of a raiyati nature being also recorded in the khatian.

(b) The khatian shall show in detail for all the lands in the village, estate by estate, landlord by landlord, tenant by tenant, and occupant by occupant, the lands included in each estate owned by each landlord and occupied by each tenant or occupant, with particulars of rent and area and of the incidents of each tenancy. The commuted value of præedial conditions to which the tenant has been found liable, and if any tenant is liable to any præedial conditions other than those to which the general body of tenants are liable, or is not liable to all præedial conditions to which the general body are liable, then the præedial conditions to which such tenant is liable, shall be separately recorded in the khatian.

(c) Lands cultivated or otherwise held direct by a proprietor or tenure-holder shall be shown in detail in the khatian, and shall be entered either as landlord's privileged land within the meaning of section 118 (1) (a) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, or as land held by the proprietor or tenure-holder but not privileged land within the meaning of that section.

(d) The khatian shall also show the respective rights of all persons privileged to take forest produce from jungle or waste land or to graze cattle on any land within the village.

IV.—Attestation of the Record.

13. (a) When the map, khasra, khewat and khatian for a village, or such portions of them as are prepared at khanapuri, have been prepared in the manner prescribed by these rules and by instructions of the Board of Revenue consistent with them, the Revenue officer shall issue a notification, in the form contained in Schedule I, fixing a day, which shall be not less than a week from the date of publication of the notification, on which he will be present at some place to be specified at or near the village for the purpose of attesting and completing the record-of-rights in respect of all particulars specified in the above rules 11 and 12.

(b) The notification shall state that on the day so fixed, or on any other day to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the Revenue-officer will record rents and will decide all questions of status and claims to special rights or privileges in any lands and record existing rights of tenants or residents in regard to the jungle and waste lands of the village, and commute and include in the cash rent of the holding the value of præedial conditions in accordance with the rules, and will receive and dispose of applications for the commutation of produce-rent, and deal with objections relating to entries in the record or omissions therefrom; and it shall require all parties interested in the subject-matter of the enquiry to attend at the time and place specified, with their parchas, and with such evidence as they have to offer in connection with the proceedings.

(c) Such notification shall be published by proclamation and fixed up in the presence of not less than two persons in some conspicuous place in the village to which it refers.

14. The Revenue-officer may also, if he so deems fit, take such additional measures, under the powers conferred on him by rule 4, as he may deem desirable to procure the attendance, at the place specified in the notification issued under rule 13, of the occupants, under-raiyats, raiyats, tenure-holders, landlords and proprietors or their authorized agents.

15. On the date specified in the notification issued under rule 13, or on any other date to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the entries which have been made in the khewat and in each khatian shall be read out in the presence of such of the interested parties as are in attendance. If the correctness of any entry is questioned, the Revenue officer shall dispose of the objection, after local enquiry or otherwise: provided that, if the correctness of a measurement be objected to, and a fresh measurement be demanded, or if a local enquiry is necessary to decide any objection, the Revenue-officer may require the cost of such remeasurement or local enquiry to be deposited. If it appears from the result of the measurement or local enquiry for which costs have been deposited that the objection was not frivolous or groundless, it shall be open to the Revenue-officer to refund the costs, or any portion of the costs which he may think fit to refund.

16. The Revenue-officer shall enquire into any claim put forward for Mundari-khuntkatti tenancies, and shall also ascertain which of the raiyats are raiyats having khuntkatti rights or settled raiyats or occupancy raiyats, and shall record them as such.

The Revenue-officer shall ascertain what raiyats are non-occupancy raiyats, and to this end he shall be entitled to call upon the landlord or his agent to produce a statement showing the names of raiyats alleged by him to be non-occupancy raiyats. On the production of such statement, he shall explain to those raiyats the provisions of Chapter IV of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908. If after such explanation a raiyat admits that he is a non-occupancy raiyat, and if the attestation officer is satisfied of the correctness of the admission, he shall record the raiyat as a non-occupancy raiyat. If he does not admit himself to be a non-occupancy raiyat, the Revenue-officer shall call on the landlord to prove the allegations made by him in regard to such raiyat.

17. The Revenue-officer shall ascertain and record what lands are korkar and what lands are bhuinhari under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869, and what lands are khuntkatti.

18. The Revenue-officer shall summarily ascertain the rent at present payable by the tenant, and record it in the appropriate column of the khatian as the rent payable in respect of land held by the tenant. In recording rents the Revenue-officer shall have regard to the provisions of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, regarding enhancement of rent, and shall record only such rent as is legally payable.

In order to carry out the instructions of this rule, the Revenue-officer shall, before proceeding to attest the records of the village, hold a preliminary enquiry, at which he shall record briefly the deposition of the landlord or his agent and at least one tenant, and shall make such further enquiry as may be necessary, and shall record a finding upon the rates of rent prevailing in the village for each class of land.

19. In the course of the preliminary enquiry into the rates of rent prevailing in the village, the Revenue-officer shall also ascertain the prædial conditions to which each class of tenants in the village is subject, and shall record a finding showing what prædial conditions, if any, are renderable by the general body of tenants, and their cash value, and shall prepare a statement in the form contained in Schedule VI. The cash value of prædial conditions, as commuted by the Revenue-officer under section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian and included in the total rent payable by raiyats. In the case of tenure-holders, the commuted value of prædial conditions will be entered in the khewat.

In ascertaining and commuting prædial conditions, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, special regard being given to the proviso to section 105 (3). Any prædial conditions which are by custom or contract already payable in cash shall still be treated as subject to the proviso to section 105 (3) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

20. Cesses which are authorized by law shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian, or, in the case of tenure-holders, in the khewat.

No demand of any other kind shall be recorded in the khatian.

21. The Revenue-officer shall, at the time of attestation, also record, in a form prescribed by the Board, the rights, as specified in section 81 (n) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, which are enjoyed by any class of persons according to established custom in each plot of jungle in the village, and the conditions under which such customary rights are enjoyed.

22. Where a notification under section 127 (b) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, has been issued, he shall also prepare a record of the rights and obligations of the village headmen.

23. When the record-of-rights and of existing rents has been prepared and attested in the manner prescribed in rules 13 to 22, and when the record has been arranged and corrected in accordance with the orders which the Revenue-officer has passed, he shall record a proceeding, in which he shall state that attestation of the records and commutation of prædial conditions, if any, have been completed, and shall then cause the draft record-of-rights to be published in the village in the manner provided in rule 25.

24. If applications for the commutation of produce rents are filed before the Revenue-officer at the time of attestation, they may be disposed of either before draft publication or after draft publication, according to convenience. If they are disposed of before draft publication, the settled rents shall be incorporated in the settlement record before it is published in draft.

V.—Publication of the draft record.

25. (a) As soon as the record-of-rights has been prepared and attested, a notice in the form contained in Schedule II shall be posted up at the landlord's office in the village, or, in the presence of not less than two persons, in some conspicuous place in the village, stating that the draft of the record will be published in the village on a day to be specified, not less than a week from the date of the posting of such notice, and calling on all persons interested to attend on the date so specified: provided that the draft of the record shall not be published until the proceeding under rule 23 has been recorded.

(b) On the date fixed for the publication of the draft records the Revenue-officer shall either proceed to the village himself and read the contents of the records in the presence of the parties who attend, or he shall depute an officer, not below the rank of kanungo, who shall read out the contents of the records in the presence of as many of the parties as attend; and the Revenue-officer, or the officer deputed by him, as the case may be, shall at the same time inform the parties who attend that the draft records will be open for inspection for not less than one month in the office of the Revenue-officer, or in such other convenient place as the Revenue-officer may determine. The Revenue-officer shall receive and consider any objection which may be made to any entry during the period named. Objections shall, as far as practicable, be made in the form contained in Schedule III.

VI.—Disposal of objections under sections 83 and 111 (6).

26. When an objection is made, before the expiry of the period of publication of the draft record prescribed under rule 25, regarding the correctness of any entry, or as to the propriety of any omission, notice of the objection, in the form contained in Schedule IV, shall be served on all persons whose interest may, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be affected thereby, and they shall be called upon to attend at such time and place as the Revenue-officer may fix for the disposal of the objection. If no person attends to contest the objection, and the Revenue officer is satisfied that the notice of objection has been duly served on all persons interested, the objection may be allowed and the records amended accordingly, or the person who made the objection may, if the Revenue-officer thinks fit, be called upon to produce evidence in support of his objection.

All such objections shall be dealt with summarily under such instructions as the Board of Revenue may prescribe.

VII.—Settlement of rents before final publication.

27. When the Revenue-officer settles fair rents in isolated or individual cases, before final publication, under section 85 (3) (a) or (b), he shall follow mutatis mutandis the procedure laid down in rules 32 to 37 below for the settlement of fair rents after final publication, and shall incorporate the settled rents in the record to be finally published under rule 29.

28. When rents are settled, before final publication, for whole villages or for larger areas, the Revenue-officer shall adopt the following procedure:—

(a) He shall first serve a notice on the village in which settlement of rents is about to be made. The notice shall be in the form contained in Schedule VII, and shall set forth that on a date named and at a place named the Revenue-officer will settle fair rents in respect of all estates, tenures or holdings and for unsettled lands included in such village. Such notice shall be served at least one week previous to the date fixed for settlement of fair rents. When such notice has been served it shall be held that all persons have been sufficiently warned of the date fixed:

Provided that when in the course of proceedings a Revenue-officer proposes to alter an existing rent, and the parties have not attended in compliance with the general notice, the Revenue-officer shall serve each person interested with a special notice, and the fair rent shall not be settled in the absence of such person until after due service of such special notice has been proved.

(b) On the date fixed in the notice under rule 28 (a), or any subsequent date to which the proceeding may be adjourned, the Revenue officer shall proceed to settle rents in the manner prescribed in rules 35 (a) and 37.

(c) The settlement of rent for any number of tenants occupying land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may, upon the application of the parties or at the discretion of the Revenue officer, be disposed of in one proceeding, provided that if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

(e) It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree.

VIII.—Final publication of the Record-of-rights.

29. When all objections under sections 83 and 111 (6) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, have been disposed of as provided for in rule 26, and when the draft records have been corrected in accordance with the orders passed, and when the rents, if any, settled under section 85 (3) (a) or (b) or under section 61 of the Act have been duly incorporated in the record, the Revenue officer shall finally frame the records and cause them to be published by notifying, in the form contained in Schedule V, that their contents will be read out in the village on a date to be specified, not being less than a week from the date of the publication of such notice, and by reading them out himself or causing them to be read in the village on the date so specified, in the manner prescribed in rule 25, in the presence of the parties or of as many of them as attend. The officer engaged in final publication shall serve a copy of the entries in any record prepared under section 127 upon all persons interested in these entries, in the manner prescribed in rule 3.

30. When the record-of-rights of all villages in any local area has been finally published, the Revenue officer shall submit a report to the Local Government, containing such particulars as may be necessary in order to enable the Local Government to issue a notification under section 84 (2) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

IX.—Distribution of copies of the Record-of-rights to parties interested.

31. (a) A copy of the record-of-rights as finally published, or an extract therefrom shall be made over to the landlord concerned, or, where there are more landlords than one, to their common agent or common manager, or, if there be no common agent or common manager, to such person among the landlords as the Revenue officer may think fit. The copy or extract shall bear a certificate, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal, that it is a copy of, or extract from, the record-of-rights as finally published.

(b) An extract from the khatian relating to his tenancy shall be given to every tenant, under the seal of the Revenue officer and under the signature of an officer duly authorized by the Revenue officer to give copies.

(c) Copies of records, or of extracts from them, supplied to landlords and tenants under this rule shall be given free or on payment according as in the case of each local area the Local Government may direct. When payment is required, the sum recovered shall be adjusted against the expenses incurred on account of survey and settlement.

X.—The settlement of fair rents after final publication.

32. When the landlord or tenant applies for a settlement of a fair rent, he shall be considered as plaintiff and the opposite party as defendant.

33. Notice, in the form contained in Schedule VIII, shall be served on every person interested in the application, together with a copy of the application, or an extract therefrom, or a summary thereof, so far as the application concerns such person.

34. With the consent of the Revenue officer, any number of tenants of the same status, holding land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may make a joint application for the settlement of rents, or may be joined as defendants in the same proceeding on a similar application by the landlord: Provided that, if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

35. (a) On the date fixed for the settlement of fair rents, or any subsequent date to which the proceedings are adjourned, the Revenue officer shall read aloud, or cause to be read aloud in his presence, the name of each tenant whose rent has to be settled, the area of his tenancy, and the existing rent, and shall then proceed to settle a fair rent under the provisions of section 85 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

When the record has been read over as provided for above, the Revenue officer shall record all claims to enhancement or reduction of the existing rent, and shall try and decide any issues which may be raised under section 86 of the said Act.

(b) Where a landlord or tenant does not attend, after due service of notice has been proved, the procedure may be ex parte.

(c) Where a landlord or tenant appears, the Revenue officer shall record evidence in the manner prescribed in section 164 of the said Act, and shall settle a fair and equitable rent. In important cases the evidence shall be recorded at length.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the said Act.

36. It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree. The Revenue officer shall carefully scrutinize the individual entries in schedules, where rents are settled for a number of tenants in joint proceedings, to ensure that injustice be not caused to individuals by the application of general rules.

37. When in the settlement of fair rents, issues are raised under section 86 of the said Act, they shall be heard and decided before fair rents are settled. Proceedings under the said section 86 shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. Such suits shall ordinarily be tried separately for each tenancy, unless the Revenue officer, for reasons to be recorded by him, considers that the suits affecting two or more tenancies may conveniently be tried together without prejudice to the parties concerned.

XI.—The trial of suits under sections 87, 111 (8), 130, and 252 of the Act.

38. Proceedings under sections 87, 111 (8), 130 or 252 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. The finally published records shall be corrected in accordance with the orders that may be passed in any such proceedings.

XIV.—Deposit of settlement records with the Deputy Commissioner.

39. The finally published record, as completed under rules 35 and 38, shall be made over to the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and shall bear a certificate, that it is the finally published record, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal.

CHAPTER III.

General scale of fees.

40. For the service of every notice under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, not being a notice issued by any Revenue or Civil Court (fees for serving which are regulated by the Court-fees Act, 1870), and not being provided for by any other rule made under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, a process-fee of 8 annas shall be levied if the notice be directed to one or more persons residing in the same village.

Where such notices are directed to several persons resident in different villages, a fee of 8 annas shall be levied for service in each village.

In addition to the above fee, the actual charge which must be incurred, if it is necessary to travel by railway or boat, or to cross ferries, shall be levied from, and paid by, the person at whose instance the process is issued, before issue of the process. If a peon carries more than one process involving charges for railway fare, boat-hire, &c., the sum leviable shall be charged, in equal shares, upon all the processes so carried.

If a peon is detained at the place of service for more than 24 hours at the request of the person at whose instance the process was issued, or of his agent, such person or agent must then and there pay demurrage at the rate of 3 annas a day. Unless the demurrage is paid, the peon must decline to wait. No demurrage shall be charged if the delay was not due to the person requiring the process or to his agent.

CHAPTER IV.

XXIII.

No. L.R.—The January 1910—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (vi) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rule for the district of Manbhum to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the Manbhum.

22nd idem, prescribing the Court by which decrees or orders passed by a Deputy Commissioner under that Act may be executed:—

A decree or order passed by a Deputy Commissioner may be executed either by himself or by his successor in office, or by any Court to which the Deputy Commissioner of the district transfers the application for execution.

Explanation.—The expression "Deputy Commissioner of the district" means the actual Deputy Commissioner for the time being, and does not include any officer empowered under clause (viii) of section 3 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

XXIV.

No. Manbhum. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xvii) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct that in the district of Manbhum to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, applications, referred to in section 183 of that Act, for the execution of decrees or orders passed by a Deputy Commissioner under the Act, shall be made in the form prescribed by rule 11, clause (2), and rule 12 of Order XXVI, in the first Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), so far as they are applicable.

XXV.

No. Manbhum. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xix) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rule for the district of Manbhum to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, prescribing the manner of dealing with sale-proceeds under sub-section (2) of section 205 of that Act:—

An officer executing a warrant for the sale of moveable property under sections 199 to 204 of the Act shall, subject to any special order of the Deputy Commissioner who issued the warrant, remit the surplus sale proceeds, after deducting the costs referred to in sub-section (1) of section 205, to the Deputy Commissioner who issued the warrant, or, in his absence, to the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

XXVI.

No. Manbhum. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xviii) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rules for the district of Manbhum to which provisions of that Act have been extended by notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, as to appeals from decisions of Revenue-officers under section 252 of that Act:—

1. An appeal from any decision of a Revenue-officer under section 252 shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division.

2. The petition of appeal must be in writing, and must be accompanied by a certified copy of such decision and must be presented in the Court of the Commissioner of the Division within thirty days from the date of the decision appealed against.

3. The provisions of sections 220 to 223 shall, as far as they may be applicable, apply to such appeals.

XXVII.

No. Manbhum. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xx) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the district of Manbhum, to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by Government Notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, as to the manner of service of notices, summonses and other processes (other than warrants against the person of judgment-debtors) issued under that Act:—

1. The word "process," as used in these rules, means any notice, summons or other process issued under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, other than a warrant against the person of a judgment-debtor.

2. Every process shall be served personally on the person to whom it is addressed.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 2,—

(a) if the person to whom any process is addressed has an agent empowered to accept service, or placed in charge of the management of his zamindari business in connection with the landed property to which the suit or proceeding, in which the process is issued, relates, service of such process on such agent shall be sufficient; and

(b) if the person to whom any process is addressed cannot be found, and has no such agent as is referred to in class (a), service of such process may be made on any adult male member of the family of such person who may be residing with him.

Explanation.—A servant is not a member of the family within the meaning of clause (b).

4. Service of a process shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof, signed by the officer under whose authority the process is issued, or by some officer appointed by him in this behalf.

5. (1) When the serving officer delivers or tenders a copy of a process to any person referred to in rule 2 or rule 3, he—

(a) shall require the signature of such person to an acknowledgment of service endorsed on the original process, or, if such person be illiterate, shall take his thumb impression instead of a signature; and

(b) shall require the signature of persons identifying the person on whom service was made, and of persons witnessing the delivery or tender of the process, to the said acknowledgment, or, if any of them be illiterate, shall take his thumb-impression instead of a signature.

6. Whenever a process has been served under rule 2 or rule 3, the serving officer—

(a) shall endorse or annex, or cause to be endorsed or annexed, on or to the original process, a return stating the time when and the manner in which the process was served and the names and addresses of the persons (if any) who identified the person served and witnessed the delivery or tender of the process, and

(b) shall require the signature of such identifiers and witnesses to the said return, or, if any such identifier or witness be illiterate, shall take his thumb-impression instead of a signature.

7. In either of the following cases, namely:—

(a) if any person on whom a process is served refuses to sign the acknowledgment, or

(b) if the serving officer, after using all due and reasonable diligence, cannot find the person to whom a process is addressed, and there is no such agent as is referred to in rule 3 to accept service thereof on behalf of the addressee, and no adult male member of his family on whom service can be made, the serving officer shall affix a copy of the process on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the person to whom the process is addressed ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, or of his zamindari cutcherry or bhandar or farm-house (if any), and shall then return the original to the Court or officer by whom it was issued, with a report, endorsed thereon or annexed thereto, stating that he has so affixed the copy, the circumstances under which he did so, and the name and address of the person (if any) by whom the house, cutcherry or bhandar or farm-house was identified and in whose presence the copy was affixed.

8. When a process is returned under rule 7, the Court or officer by whom it was issued shall, if the return under that rule has not been verified by the affidavit of the serving officer, and may, if it has been so verified, examine the serving officer on oath, or cause him to be so examined by another Court, touching his proceedings, and may make such further inquiry in the matter as the Court or officer thinks fit; and shall either declare that the process has been duly served or order such service as it or he thinks fit.

9. (1) Where the Court or officer by whom a process was issued for service on any person is satisfied that there is reason to believe that such person is keeping out of the way for the purpose of avoiding service, or that for any other reason the process cannot be served in the ordinary way, the Court or officer shall order the process to be served by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the Court or in the office of such officer, as the case may be, and also upon some conspicuous part of the house (if any) in which the said person is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, or in such other manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Service ordered under sub-rule (1) shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the said person personally.

(3) Whenever service is ordered under sub-rule (1), the Court or officer shall fix such time for the appearance of the said person as the case may require.

10. (1) A process may be sent, by the Court or officer by whom it is issued, either by one of its or his officers or by post, to any other Court or officer having jurisdiction under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, in the place of residence of the person on whom the process is to be served.

(2) The Court or officer to whom a process is so sent shall, upon receipt thereof, proceed as if it had been issued by such Court or officer, and shall then return the process to the Court or officer by whom it was issued, together with the record (if any) made under this sub-rule.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rules, if the person to whom any process is addressed resides at a place in which the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, is not in force, the process shall be deemed to be fully served by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting by registered post a letter containing the process, and to have been served at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

XXVIII.

Manbhum. No L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xx) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rule for the district of Manbhum, to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by Notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, prescribing the manner of publication of notices issued under that Act which are not required to be served personally [except notices issued under sub-section (2) of section 51].

A notice addressed to the general body of residents in a village or hamlet or a group of villages shall be published—

(a) by affixing it, in the presence of at least two persons, at some conspicuous place in the village or hamlet or in each village of the group, as the case may be, and

(b) by proclaiming it to the residents by beat of drum:

Provided that this rule shall not apply in any case or class of cases to which the Court or officer by whom or by whose direction a notice is issued declares, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that it is unsuitable.

XXIX.

Manbhum. No. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xx) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct that for the district of Manbhum, to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by Notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, warrants, issued under that Act against the person of a judgment-debtor, shall be executed in the same manner as similar warrants issued under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908).

No. 4794.—The 21st December 1909.—The following Rules for Admission to the Government Weaving Institute, Serampore, are published for general information.

Serampore.

J. G. CUMMING,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES FOR ADMISSION TO THE GOVERNMENT WEAVING INSTITUTE, SERAMPORE.

OBJECT FOR WHICH THE SCHOOL IS ESTABLISHED.

THE Weaving Institute at Serampore has been established with the object of giving technical instruction in the best and latest methods of hand-weaving, of extending a knowledge of the mechanical improvements which make the modern hand-loom so vastly more effective an instrument than the primitive looms still widely used by native weavers in Bengal, and so of strengthening and reviving the weaving industry in this country.

With these objects in view two quite distinct grades of instruction are given, forming higher and lower classes—

(1) to young men of a fair degree of education who may be trained as teachers, managers and organizers of the weaving industry. These form the higher classes;

(2) to actual hand-workers, weavers, from Serampore and other places. These form the lower or artizan classes.

The school at Serampore is staffed and administered by the Bengal Government. It is managed by the Principal under the general control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

RULES FOR THE HIGHER CLASSES.

1. The number of admissions to these classes in each year is limited to 75. Of these, 10 will be reserved for candidates from Eastern Bengal and Assam.

2. Candidates for admission must have passed the B Class final or the University Matriculation examination or have been trained in one of the technical schools affiliated in the Sub-Overseer course to the Apprentice Department of the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.

3. The session begins in the second week of January. All applications for admission should be made to the Principal in the first week of January and should furnish the following particulars:—

(a) Name and address and occupation of father or guardian.
(b) Race and religion.
(c) An attested certificate of age of the candidate.
(d) A certificate of good moral character from the last Head Master or Principal.

4. Twenty Government scholarships of Rs. 15, tenable for one or two years, will be offered to students of the higher class.

5. Students to whom scholarships have been awarded will not be allowed to hold their scholarships for the second year if they fail to pass the first year's annual examination.

6. Students joining the higher class will have to sign an undertaking to the effect that they will make weaving their profession after the completion of the course of their training.

7. The course of study in these classes extends to two years. Students are required to attend 75 per cent. of the working days.

8. Students who pass the annual examination on the first year's course will be promoted to the second year's course; but those who desire to do so may at their option leave the school.

9. Students who pass an examination at the end of the second year's course will receive certificates from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

10. The course of studies for the two years is given in detail below:—

First year's course.

(a) Practical weaving.
(b) Sketching of textile machinery.
(c) Model drawing.
(d) Freehand drawing.
(e) Design and analysis of cloth.
(f) Preparation of yarn.
(g) Textile fibres.
(h) Fabric structure.

Second year's course.

(a) Practical weaving.
(b) Construction of works.
(c) Engineering drawing.
(d) Textile chemistry.
(e) Design and analysis of cloth.
(f) Fabric structure.
(g) Weaving mechanism.

RULES FOR THE LOWER CLASSES.

1. These lower classes are primarily intended for the benefit of weavers from Serampore and its neighbourhood, both adult weavers and their sons, but up-country weavers and weavers from Eastern Bengal and Assam will also be admitted to them.

2. Applications for admission will ordinarily be received in the month of January, and at other times at the discretion of the Principal.

3. The number of admissions to the lower class is limited to 50.

4. Twenty scholarships of Rs. 6 per mensem and twenty of Rs. 4 per mensem, tenable from four months to one year, are provided for these classes. These scholarships are not expected to suffice for the entire maintenance of the pupils. District Boards and Municipalities and other public bodies when sending pupils should supplement the scholarships provided so as to bring them up to at least Rs. 10 a month, which is roughly estimated as the cost of maintenance. The exact amount required at any time may be ascertained from the Principal on enquiry.

5. Applications for admission should be made to the Principal through the authorities of the District Boards, Municipalities, Industrial schools or other bodies or institutions which provide the applicants with scholarships.

6. The course of study in these classes will extend from four months to one year and nstruction shall be given through the medium of the vernacular.

7. The course of studies is given in detail below :—

(a) Practical weaving.
(b) Freehand drawing.
(c) Design and analysis of cloth.
(d) Practical dyeing.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

The 21st December 1909.

No. 118 Marine.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 36 of the Indian Steam-ships Act, 1884, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, to make the following rules to regulate the grant of certificates of competency to Engineers of sea-going steam-ships.

This cancels the notification of this Department No. 46-Marine, dated the 7th April 1905, as amended by notifications No. 134 Marine, dated the 11th December 1906, and No. 76 Marine, dated the 13th July 1908.

T. BUTLER,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

CHAPTER I.

General Rules.

Certificates of competency granted to persons who pass requisite examinations.

1. Certificates of competency will be granted to those persons who pass the requisite examinations and otherwise comply with the requisite conditions. For this purpose Examiners have been appointed and arrangements have been made for holding the examinations periodically at the Port of Calcutta. The examinations will be held whenever necessary or at such other times as the Government may appoint.

Application how to be made.

2. The application for examination is to be made on Form Exn. 3, which must be filled up at the Port Office. The Form Exn. 3, properly filled in, together with the candidate's Indentures of Apprenticeship, testimonials, and discharges, must be lodged with the Port Officer not later than the day before the day of examination. As such testimonials may have to be verified before the candidate can be examined it is desirable that they should be handed in together with the Form Exn. 3, as early as possible.

The Port Officer should be particularly careful to ascertain that there are no gaps in the candidate's service which are not properly accounted for before he is allowed up for examination.

How to apply in special cases.

3. In cases where the services of a candidate require verification, or where he is in doubt whether his service complies with the regulations, and wishes to submit his case for special consideration, all certificates, discharges and testimonials, together with the form of application* properly filled in, should be submitted to the Port Officer, who will either deal with the case or transmit it to the Government for decision.

Inquiries.

4. All other enquiry regarding examinations should be made and dealt with in the same way. The point on which information is sought should be clearly stated and certificates, discharges, testimonials, etc., should be forwarded when they are material to the enquiry.

Testimonials, shore service.

5. All candidates will be required to produce in addition to the official discharge certificates, testimonials as to their workshop service and as to their service at sea. The testimonials as to workshop service must be signed by the employer and must testify to the candidate's conduct and ability, and state what kind of work he was engaged on (e.g., fitting, erecting, etc.), and for how long.

Testimonials, sea service.

6. Testimonials as to service at sea must testify to the applicant's sobriety, experience, ability, and general good conduct for at least the last twelve months' service at sea preceding the date of application to be examined. They must be signed by the Master and Chief Engineer (or, in the case of testimonials to Chief Engineers, by the Master and Superintending Engineer), and must clearly state whether the applicant was on regular watch, and in regular charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers. It is desirable that testimonials of candidates should be endorsed by the Superintending Engineer. No time spent in clerical work will be allowed to count.

Penalty for misconduct.

7. Candidates who have neglected to join their vessels after having signed articles, or who have deserted their vessels after having joined, or who have been found guilty of gross misconduct on board, will be required to produce satisfactory proofs of two years' subsequent service and good conduct at sea, unless the Government, after having investigated the matter, should see fit to reduce the time.

Further as to testimonials.

8. In cases where a testimonial from the Chief Engineer, or from the Master, is for any sufficient reason not obtainable, one may be submitted from the Superintending Engineer in place of that of the Chief Engineer, and one from the Managing Owner or Secretary or Chairman of a large Company in place of that of the Master, but in every such instance the testimonial must declare that the facts stated are in accordance with the reports made by the Chief Engineer or the Master, as the case may be, or else that the facts are within the writer's personal knowledge.

Physical defects.

9. When a candidate is observed to be hard of hearing, or is labouring under any other obvious physical defect, the signatories of his testimonials are required to mention that defect specifically, and to state whether it in any way interfered with the efficiency of the candidate as an engineer on watch. When these modified testimonials are such as to completely satisfy the examiner that the defect is not such as to interfere with the efficient discharge of the applicant's duties as engineer, the examination is proceeded with; otherwise the case is referred to the Government. Candidates afflicted with nervous impediment in speech may write their answers to viva-voce questions.

Foreign Engineers' foreign service.

10. The testimonials of service of Foreign Engineers and of British Engineers serving in foreign vessels, which cannot be verified by the Port Officer, must be confirmed either by the Consul of the country to which the ship in which the candidate served belonged, or by some other recognized official authority of that country; or by the testimony of some credible person on the spot having personal knowledge of the facts required to be established. The production, however, of such proofs will not of necessity be deemed sufficient. Each case must be decided on its own merits; and if the sufficiency of the proofs given appears to be at all doubtful, the point must be referred to the Government.

Certificate as to age.

11 Should any doubt exist as to the age of a candidate he will be required to produce a Certificate of Birth or Baptism.

Foreign Engineers must know English.

12. Foreign Engineers must prove to the satisfaction of the Examiners that they can speak and write the English language sufficiently well to perform the duties required of them on board a British vessel.

Service must be verified.

13. Service which cannot be verified by proper entries in the Articles of the Ships in which the candidates have served cannot be counted.

Issue of certificate.

14 If the candidate passes he will receive a Form (Form Exn. 16) authorizing the Port Officer to whom it is addressed to issue the Certificate. The candidate's testimonials and other papers will be returned to him when the examination is finished. It is therefore important that the port at which the Certificate is to be issued should be the same on both the Form Exn 16 and the form of application Exn. 3. If circumstances should make any alteration necessary, the Examiner should see that it is made in both forms; otherwise delay in the issue of the Certificate may by caused.

Service found to be insufficient.

15. If after a candidate has passed the examination it is discovered on further investigation that his services are insufficient to entitle him to receive a Certificate of the grade for which he has passed, the Certificate will not be granted to him; but if the Port Officer is satisfied that the error in the calculation of the candidate's services did not occur through any fault or wilful misrepresentation on his part, he may either have the fee returned to him or have it placed to his credit. Should his services entitle him to a Certificate of a lower grade, it may be granted to him, and the difference, if any, between the fee paid by him for the superior Certificate and the fee payable for the inferior Certificate will be returned to him or placed to his credit.

The Superior Certificate will not be granted until the candidate has performed the amount of service in which he was deficient, and has been re-examined in all the subjects unless the Government see fit to dispense with the re-examination.

Failure in examination.

16. If the candidate fails in practical knowledge he may not present himself for re-examination until he can produce proofs of three months' further service at sea, as Engineer on watch on the main engines or boilers, from the date of failure. If he fails in arithmetic, elementary questions, or drawing only, he may come up again at any time.

Fee must be paid first.

17. Candidates for examination, in making their application on the Form Exn. 3, will be required to pay the Examination fee before any step is taken towards inquiring into their services or testing their qualifications, &c. If the candidate is found not to be qualified, the fee will either be returned to him or placed to his credit until he is qualified.

Payment of fees.

18. The fee for examination must be paid to the Port Officer. In any case in which a candidate offers a gratuity to any other officer and in any place but in the Port Office, the candidate so offering a gratuity will be regarded as having committed an act of misconduct, and will be rejected, and not allowed to be examined for twelve months either at the Port where the offence was committed or at any other port.

Fees not returned on failure.

19. If a candidate fails in his examination, no part of the fee he has paid will be returned to him.

Table of fees.

20. The fees are as follows:—

	Rs.
Second Class Engineer's Certificate ..	15
First Class Engineer's Certificate ...	30
First Class Engineer's Certificate if the candidate holds a Second Class Certificate of Competency granted by the Board of Trade, or by the Government of a British possession under section 8 of the Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869 ...	15

CHAPTER II.

Qualifications required for the various grades.

Second Class.

21. SECOND CLASS ENGINEER.—A candidate for a Second Class Engineer's Certificate must be 21 years of age;

(a) He must have served as an apprentice Engineer for four years in England or five years in India at least, and prove that during the period of his apprenticeship he has been employed on the making or repairing of steam engines, boilers, &c. Three years in England or four years in India of the apprentice time must have been passed in the fitting or erecting shops, or in both. In calculating the four years in England or five years in India of artisan service, which are to constitute the required apprenticeship, which should not begin at an earlier age than 15, time spent at a technical school (recognised by the Port Officer as suitable) where there is an engineering laboratory, may be taken into account and accepted as equivalent to artisan service, at the ratio of three years in the technical school to two in artisan service, provided that the applicant was over 15 years of age, and can produce the Principal's Certificate for regular attendance and satisfactory progress, and provided also that in such case the other portion of the time was spent in the fitting or erecting shops of an engineer, as indicated above.

Time spent in a technical school cannot be accepted as equivalent to more than two years' artisan service, and time spent in foreign technical schools can in no circumstances be recognised.

Journeyman's time will be considered as equivalent to apprenticeship.

Every applicant must produce testimonials of ability as an engineer workman to the satisfaction of the Government.

If the candidate has served as an apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman, under the conditions above prescribed, for less than four years in England or five years in India, he will be required to make up the deficiency or to complete this period of four years in England or five years in India, by service as Engineer at sea on regular watch on the main engines or boilers (1) of a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-powers, or (2) of a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, such service to be counted as equivalent in the case of (1) to two-thirds, and in the case of (2) to four-ninths, of service as apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman.

* If the candidates has not served at all as apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman, he will be required to have served at sea, in lieu thereof, as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, six years in a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, or nine years in a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

(b) In addition to the apprenticeship as above described, or the alternative sea service, the applicant must have served one year at sea as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers of a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, or eighteen months in a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

(c) He must be able to give a satisfactory description of boilers, and the methods of staying them, together with the use and management of the different valves, cocks, pipes, and connexions.

(d) He must understand how to correct defects from accident, decay, &c., and the means of repairing such defects.

(e) He must understand the use of the water gauge, pressure gauge, barometer, thermometer, and salinometer, and the principles on which they are constructed.

(f) He must state the causes, effects, and usual remedies for incrustation and corrosion.

(g) He must be able to explain the method of testing and altering the setting of the slide valves, and method of testing the fairness of shafts and adjusting them.

In the case of England, "foreign going steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading or going between some place or places situate beyond the following limits, that is to say, the coasts of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man, and the Continent of Europe between the River Elbe and Brest, inclusive "Home trade steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading or going within the following limits, that is to say, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man and the Continent of Europe between the River Elbe and Brest inclusive

In the case of India, "foreign-going steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading between any port of the territories which are or may become vested in His Majesty by the Statutes 21 and 22 Vic., Cap. 106, entitled "An Act for the better government of India" and any port or place not in the said territories, nor on the Continent of India, nor in the Straits Settlements, nor in the Island of Ceylon. "Home-trade steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading between any ports of the said territories or between any port of the said territories and any port or place on the Continent of India or in the Straits Settlements or in the Island of Ceylon.

* These two clauses shall have effect from the 1st January 1910.

(h) He must be able to calculate the suitable working pressure for a steam-boiler of given dimensions, and the stress, per square inch, on crank and tunnel shafts when the necessary data are furnished.

(i) He must understand the construction of steering engines, evaporators, feed filters, and feed heaters.

(j) He must understand the construction of centrifugal, bucket, and plunger pumps, and the principle on which they act.

(k) He must be able to state how a temporary or permanent repair could be effected in case of derangement of a part of the machinery, or total breakdown.

(l) He must write a legible hand, and have a good knowledge of arithmetic up to and including vulgar and decimal fractions and square root. He must also understand the application of these rules to questions about safety valves, coal consumption, consumption of stores, capacities of tanks, bunkers, &c.

(m) He must be able to pass a creditable examination as to the various constructions of paddle and screw engines in general use, as to the details of the different working parts, external and internal, and the use of each part.

(n) He must possess a creditable knowledge of the prominent facts relating to combustion, heat and steam.

22. FIRST CLASS ENGINEER.—A candidate for a First Class Engineer's Certificate must be not less than 22 years of age. First Class.

In addition to the qualification required for a Second Class Engineer,

(a) He must—

(1) have served at sea for 12 months, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service as Senior Engineer in charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers of a foreign-going steam-ship of not less than 99 nominal horse power; or

(2) have served at sea for 18 months, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency, or service as First Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse-power; or 2 years as Second Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse power, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency, or service or

(3) have served 2½ years with a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service as third Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse-power, if during the whole of that period he has been the senior Engineer in charge of a watch on the main engines and boilers, or

(4) possess or be entitled to a First Class Certificate of service.

(b) He will be required to make an intelligible hand sketch, or a working drawing of some one or more of the principal parts of a steam-engine, and to mark in without a copy all the necessary dimensions in figures, so that the sketch or drawing could be worked from.*

(c) He must be able to take off and calculate indicator diagrams.

*See Appendix C.

(d) He must be able to calculate safety-valve pressures and the strength of the boilers shell, stays, and riveting.

(e) He must be able to state the general proportions borne by the principal parts of the machinery to each other, and to calculate the direct stress, the torsional stress, and the bending stress in round bars, and the direct stress and the bending stress in rectangular bars with given loads.

(f) He must be able to explain the method of testing and altering the setting of the slide valves, and to sketch about what difference any alteration in the slide valve will make in the indicator diagram, and also the method of testing the fairness of shafts and of adjusting them.

(g) He must be conversant with surface condensation, superheating, and the working of steam expansively.

(h) His knowledge of arithmetic must include the mensuration of superficies and solids and the extraction of the square and cube roots, and the application of these rules to questions relating to the power, duty and economy of engines and boilers, and to the stresses in rods, shafts and levers of the engine.

(i) He must understand the construction of, and be able to maintain in working condition, the auxiliary machinery which is placed under his charge, viz, refrigerating machinery, electric light engines and dynamos, electric motors fitted to ships' boats, hydraulic machinery, and the various descriptions of steering engines, etc.

Workshop service where engines are not made.

23. When the workshop service has been performed in a place where steam-engines are not made or repaired, and the class of work done is similar to that required in engine making, the service may be accepted with an additional year of qualifying service; that is, four years in England or five years in India of workshop service and two years in the engine-room (of which one year must have been at sea), or one year at engine fitting in a suitable marine engine workshop and one year at sea in the engine-room. The approval of the Port Officer must be obtained in every such case before the candidate is examined.

Workshop service other than fitting or erecting.

24. When the workshop service has been performed in a place where engines are made, and the department in which the applicant has been principally engaged is not "fitting" or "erecting," the case must be referred to the Government with a report upon the service performed. If the service be such as is useful training for an Engineer, the Port Officer may accept the service, but in every such case the applicant must prove additional engine-room or marine engine workshop service as required above.

Qualifying service defined.

25. In the case of candidates for First Class Certificates, qualifying service means service on regular watch as senior engineer in charge of the main engines or boilers. During the whole of the period claimed, candidates must have been in possession of Second Class Certificates.

In the case of candidates for Second Class Certificates, qualifying service means service as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers. In no case will time spent in clerical work be allowed to count Foreign Engineers.

26. Foreign Engineers cannot be examined for a First Class Certificate unless they have performed the sea-service stated in rule 22, with the requisite British Certificate. The service may have been performed in foreign vessels if the candidate can produce satisfactory testimonials as to conduct and character, and is able to prove that the service has been in the required capacities, and that during the period of service he has held a British Certificate of Competency of the rank required by the Regulations. [See rule 10.]

Name on articles.

27. In all cases the candidates' names must have been duly entered on the ship's Articles as Engineers in their proper ratings.

Regular watch.

28. Being on regular watch means being on watch for at least eight hours a day.

Further as to qualifying service.

29. Only such service as gives the experience required to make a man thoroughly competent as a sea-going Engineer is accepted as qualifying service. Even for a Second Class Certificate the candidate must prove to the satisfaction of the Examiner that he is qualified by experience and knowledge to act as Chief Engineer in an under-powered steamer of 99 nominal horse-power on a voyage, say from India to Egypt, taking full responsibility for engines and boilers.

Sea service.

30. The sea service required by these Regulations is, unless otherwise stated, service performed in foreign-going ships.

Home-trade service.

31. Service in the Home or Coasting Trade is regarded as being equivalent to two-thirds of the same period of time served in the Foreign Trade, except in the case of Indian Coasting Voyages extending beyond a distance of 500 miles from the port of departure in steam-ships commanded by Masters holding Foreign-going Certificates, when such service will count as foreign-voyages, and will be reckoned as full time; but the time spent in the port of departure or Home Port will not be allowed to count. In all cases the length of service is deemed to commence on the date of sailing from the port of departure or Home Port and to end on the date of arrival at the Home Port. Such service must be vouched for in the form laid down in Appendix G.

Lake or river service.

32. Service as watch-keeper on a lake or river steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power may be accepted under the following conditions:—

(a) the service will only count half as much as sea service, i.e., every two months of lake or river service is only equivalent to one month's sea service;

(b) candidates for second class certificates must prove in addition to the lake or river service, at least three months' qualifying service at sea in a steam-ship of not less than 66 nominal horse-power;

(c) candidates for first class certificates must prove, in addition to lake or river service in vessels of 99 nominal horse-power, at least six months' qualifying service at sea, with a Second Class Engineer's Certificate, in vessels of not less than 99 nominal horse-power.

Service in auxiliary screw steam-ships.

33. Service performed on board auxiliary screw whalers and other vessels with auxiliary steam-power of not less than 66 nominal horse-power in the capacity of Engineer may be allowed to count towards qualifying candidates for examination for Second Class Engineers' Certificates of Competency to the extent of one-half the time the vessel is actually at sea. If the candidate is able to prove a larger amount of time under steam, he will be allowed to count the whole of such extended time.

Service in dredgers, fishing boats, tug-boats or pilot vessels.

34. Service in sea-going steam dredgers, fishing-boats or tug-boats and in sea-going pilot vessels when on their station, or when going to or returning from the same, may be accepted under the following conditions. Two months of such service is only equivalent to one month's qualifying service. Candidates for Second Class Certificates may perform all their sea service in sea-going steam dredgers, fishing-boats, tug-boats or pilot-vessels, but they must have been on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, and the vessels must not be less than 66 nominal horse-power. Candidates for First Class Certificates must have served in vessels of at least 99 nominal horse-power, and have been in charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers. They must, in addition, have served in a qualifying capacity for at least six months in a foreign-going cargo or passenger steam-ship, or nine months in a home-trade cargo or passenger steam-ship.

Service in yachts.

35. Service performed in steam yachts, either within or beyond home-trade limits, may be accepted as equivalent to two-thirds of the time performed in foreign-going trading vessels, provided that the candidate's name is entered on the vessel's Articles and that he can prove, to the satisfaction of the Port Officer, that the time claimed was actually served at sea.

Candidates for Second Class Certificates may perform all their service in yachts, but the candidate must have been on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, and the vessel must be of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

Candidates for First Class Certificates must have served on vessels of not less than 99 nominal horse-power, and must have been in regular charge of the main engines or boilers In addition they must have served for at least three months in a qualifying capacity on board a foreign-going trading or passenger steam-ship. This additional service will, however, not be required in the case of a candidate who has served for 18 months as first engineer, or for 2 years as second engineer, of a steam yacht of the requisite power.

First class Certificate without Second.

36. The Government may see fit to allow an applicant who, in consequence of service abroad, has been unable to obtain a Second Class Certificate, to be examined for a First Class Certificate, although he has not obtained a Certificate of the lower grade, provided he is able to satisfy them as to the satisfactory character of his services. If any candidate who has not got a Second Class Certificate of Competency fails to pass the examination for the first Class Certificate, but passes that for the lower grade, he may be given a Second Class Certificate of Competency, but no part of the fee will be returned. A candidate who has been permitted to be examined for a First Class Certificate without first obtaining a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service and who fails in his examination in practical knowledge, may not be re-examined for a Certificate of the higher grade until he has served 3 months as watch-keeper with a Second Class Engineer's Certificate of Competency or service as required by the regulations. If the candidate fails altogether, i.e., both in the examination for the lower as well as for the higher grade of Certificate, he may be re-examined for a Second Class Certificate only, subject to the usual regulations relating to failure.

Certificates of service.

37. An officer who has attained the rank of Engineer Lieutenant or Engineer Sub-Lieutenant in His Majesty's Navy or the rank of Engineer or Assistant Engineer in the Indian Marine Service, is entitled without examination, if an Engineer Lieutenant or Engineer, to a Certificate of Service as First Class Engineer, and if an Engineer Sub-Lieutenant or Assistant Engineer, to a Certificate of Service as Second Class Engineer. These officers may be examined for a Certificate of Competency on the same conditions as Engineers of the Mercantile Marine.

An officer who has attained the rank of Chief Artificer Engineer in His Majesty's Navy is also entitled without examination to a Certificate of Service as Second Class Engineer.

Examination of engine-room Artificers.

38. Artificer Engineers, Chief Engine-room Artificers, and Engine-room Artificers in the Royal Navy, may be examined for Certificates of Competency on the same conditions as Engineers of the Mercantile Marine.

Application by Naval Officers.

39. The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have directed that applications from officers of the Navy for Certificates of Service or for permission to be examined for Certificates of Competency must, in the case of officers on the active list, be made through the Commanding Officer to the Secretary to the Admiralty, and in the case of officers on half pay or who have retired, direct to the Secretary to the Admiralty, who in either case will forward the applications to the Board of Trade.

Masters and Mates' Examination in steam.

40. Particulars of the examination of Masters and Mates in steam will be found in Appendix E.

Certificates.

41. The term Certificate in these Regulations means a Certificate issued by the Board of Trade or by a British Possession under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act.

CHAPTER III.

Conduct of the Examinations.

Commencement and duration of Examinations.

42. The examinations will commence early in the forenoon, and will be continued from day to day until all the candidates whose names appear upon the Examiner's list on the day of examination are examined.

Candidates to be punctual.

43. Candidates are required to appear at the examination room punctually at the time appointed.

Tables cleared.

44. Before commencing the examination, the tables and desks must be cleared of all scraps of paper or books that are not used in the examination, and care should be taken that the candidates do not bring into the examination room any book or paper.

Strangers not admitted.

45. No persons will be allowed in the rooms during the examinations other than those whose duties require them to be present.

No instructors will be allowed on the premises.

Blotting paper.

46. A sheet of blotting paper will be issued to each candidate with the first examination paper, and it must be returned to the Examiner when the last paper is completed each day. The Examiner will be careful to see that the blotting paper has not been used by the candidate in solving his problems, or for conveying information to other candidates.

All work to be shown.

47. No candidate will be allowed to work out his problems on a slate or on waste paper or to write on the blotting paper supplied for his use in the examination. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure.

Additional sheets of paper will be supplied by the Examiner if required, but they must be attached to, and form part, of the examination papers.

Books and papers strictly forbidden.

48. All books necessary for the use of candidates under examination will be provided by the Government, and candidates are prohibited from bringing into the examination room books or papers of any kind whatever. The slightest infringement of this regulation will subject the offender to all the penalties of a failure, and he will not be allowed to present himself for re-examination for a period of three months.

Drawing instruments.

49. Candidates for First Class Certificates have to pass an examination in rough working drawing, which may, in the candidate's option, be either hand sketches clearly dimensioned and complete in the necessary views and sections, or drawings to a scale. Drawing boards and T squares will be provided by the Government, but the applicants will have to bring with them any drawing instruments they may require.

Candidates' places.

50. Candidates should be so placed as to prevent one copying from another, and no communication whatever between the candidates should be allowed.

Penalty for copying, &c.

51. In the event of any candidate being discovered referring to any book or paper, or copying from another, or affording any assistance or giving any information to another, or communicating in any way with another, during the time of examination, or copying any part of the problems for the purpose of taking them out of the examination rooms, he will subject himself to all the penalties of a failure, and will not be allowed to be examined for a period of six months.

Leaving room or building.

52. No candidate may leave the examination room without permission and without giving up the paper on which he is engaged. Under no circumstances will the same paper be returned to him, but the examiner may substitute other data, or another question.

Injury to books.

53. If a candidate defaces, blots, writes in or otherwise injures any book or form belonging to the Government, his papers will be retained until he has replaced the damaged book or document. He will not be allowed to remove the damaged book or document, and will be subjected to all the penalties of a failure.

Silence.

54. Perfect silence is to be preserved in the examination room.

Penalty for breach of rules.

55. Any candidate violating any of the regulations or being guilty of insolence to the Examiner, or of disorderly or improper conduct in or about the room, will render himself liable to the postponement of his examination, or, in the event of his having passed, to the detention of his Certificate for such period as the Government may direct.

Order of examinations.

56. The examination of candidates for Second Class Certificates consists of three parts: arithmetic, elementary questions, and viva voce; and that of candidates for First Class Certificates of four parts: arithmetic, drawing, elementary questions, and vive voce (see paragraphs 21 and 22).

Arithmetic.

57. When the number of marks obtained in arithmetic amounts to 28, that is, two-thirds of the maximum, the candidate passes in arithmetic.

If the marks obtained amount to 21, but not to 28, and if the applicant has had long sea experience, his testimonials should be taken into account, and his examination continued, if deemed advisable by the Examiner, and he may be passed or failed having due regard to his practical knowledge, and to whether he is being examined for second class or first class.

Elementary questions.

58. All engineer applicants presenting themselves for examination will be required to give written answers to ten questions selected from Elementary Questions shown in Appendix B. These questions are intended to furnish a record to some extent of the candidate's knowledge at the time of his examination, and also to induce the candidates to pay more attention to their handwriting and spelling.

Examiners will require all candidates to fill up a form, Exn. 15*b*,* and they will forward it to the Port Officer, together with the report of the examination.

The questions for both classes of engineers will be taken from the same series of Elementary Questions; and candidates for first class certificates are expected to show their superiority by giving answers more complete than those of the other candidates.

Viva voce.

59. Having regard to the fact that when the verbal examination is held, the candidate has already passed in arithmetic, and if a first class candidate in drawing, and has also written answers to the elementary questions, the Examiners will deal with practical rather than theoretical questions in this division of the examination; and no candidate should be failed without having been well cross-questioned on the points for which failure takes place.

Moreover in cases where the Examiner approves of the elementary paper but fails the candidate for lack of practical knowlege or for elementary, a written account of the points failed in must be forwarded to the Port Officer with the elementary papers and the report Exn. 15.

The elementary questions to be answered on Form Exn. 15*b are good starting points in viva voce examinations. With the candidates' written answers before the Examiner, the same question can be put in a way requiring an answer in another form. Each question may be developed into several according to the circumstances of the case, e.g.—

1. What is made of? Of what parts does it consist?

* See Appendix A.

2. What is its use?
3. What attention does it require at sea?
4. What attention does it require in port?
5. When it becomes defective, what is it that principally goes wrong with it?
6. How is it repaired?
7. What alteration may prevent a recurrence of the defect?

It is considered of great importance that engineers presenting themselves for examination should have an extensive knowledge of the particulars of actual casualties which have occurred at sea and be able to state how these might have been prevented, and how remedied. Sometimes an engineer presents himself, who has had no personal experience of any defects, and who can tell nothing about casualties to machinery which have occurred in the experience of others: such candidates should be closely questioned as to their knowledge of boiler and engine construction and the repairs of same.

The management of engines and boilers at sea, the duties of the engineer on watch, the work to be done to the engines, boilers, and auxiliary machinery in port, and the periodical examinations of the working parts, form part of the viva voce examination.

Reports of examinations.

60. Reports of examinations on the form Exn. 15, together with the Examination Papers, should be forwarded to the Port Officer immediately the examinations are completed.

General.

61. Certificates of Competency shall be made and issued by the Government in the forms hereunto annexed.

62. Every Certificate of Competency shall be made in duplicate, and one copy shall be delivered to the person entitled to the Certificate, and the other shall be kept and recorded by the Port Officer of Calcutta.

63. No application from the holder of a certificate granted by the Government of any other British Possession or by the Board of Trade to be examined for a certificate of the same legal value shall be entertained.

APPENDIX A.

FORM EXN. 15*b*.

Form to be filled up by all candidates at the commencement of the examination.

Port	Class for which examined
Date	Candidate's name

A. Where and how long did you serve in works at the making or repairing of engines and boilers?

B. How long and in what capacity did you serve in works on shore other than at the making or repairing of engines and boilers?

C. How long have you served in the engine-room at sea, and in what capacities.

D. With what descriptions of engines have you served at sea? What sizes were the engines?

E. With what descriptions of boilers have you served at sea?

F. What engine defects or defects to auxiliary machinery have come under your notice; what caused these defects, and how were they remedied? Give the names of the steamers for verification.

G. What boiler defects have come under your notice; what caused these defects, and how were they remedied? Give the names of the steamers for verification.

APPENDIX B.

ELEMENTARY QUESTIONS.

1.

What parts of an engine are generally made of wrought iron?

2.

What parts of an engine are generally made of cast iron?

3.

For what parts of an engine is steel sometimes used?

4.

What parts of an engine are generally made of brass or gun-metal?

5.

Where is "white metal" sometimes used? On account of what property possessed by it, is it adopted? What objection is there to its more general use?

6.

For what parts is Muntz metal sometimes used? Is it malleable? For what properties is it valued?

7.

What difference is there in the composition of cast iron, of wrought iron, and of steel?

8.

How can cast iron, wrought iron, and steel be distinguished from each other?

9.

What are the different properties of cast iron, of wrought iron, and of steel?

10.

What is meant by the terms "breaking stress," "proof stress," "safe working stress?"

11.

What is the cohesive strength, or breaking stress, of good ordinary wrought iron?

12.

Tempering steel: how is it done, and in what order do the colours come?

13.

What is case-hardening?

14.

Which of the common metals or alloys can be forged, and which of them are brittle or "short?"

15.

What is meant by "welding?" Which of the common metals can be welded?

16.

The expansion of metals by heat: give examples of this in the engine and in the boiler.

17.

In the construction of steel cylindrical marine boilers for what parts have the plates to be worked hot? What precautionary treatment of these plates is afterwards necessary?

18.

In what parts of cylindrical marine boilers is the strongest riveting employed? In which of the shell seams is it most necessary?

19.

What is "caulking," and how are seams prepared for caulking?

20.

Describe the different ways of fastening the ends of the main stays of a boiler. What are the merits of, or objections to, the different plans?

21.

What stress per square inch is allowed on boiler stays?

22.

Describe a riveted stay, and state where such stays are commonly used.

23.

Where are thin plates to be looked for in a boiler as it wears, and how is the thinness to be detected?

24.

How are boiler tubes fixed? What are "stay tubes," and how are they secured?

25.

Where is it generally that boiler tubes leak? How is this defect repaired? What are the causes of this leaking?

26.

What are the causes of cracked tube plates? Where are the cracks situated? How are they repaired?

What is the difference between a "dry uptake" and a "wet uptake"? Which requires most repair? Why? Where have you seen a wet uptake?

28.

What is a superheater? What is its construction? What valves are on it? There is sometimes a gauge glass n it what is that for? Are superheaters now in general use?

29.

What parts of a marine multitubular boiler are first injured by shortness of water?

30.

Where are angle irons sometimes used in the construction of a boiler, and where are flanged plates used?

31.

Priming; to what causes is it attributed? What means are applied to prevent it? What evils may be produced by it?

32

Funnel draught; what makes it? What checks it?

33.

Flame sometimes seen at the top of the funnel; what causes this appearance? Is it beneficial or is it detrimental? Why so?

34.

A blast pipe: what is its construction? Where is it placed? For what is it used?

35.

How many bottom blow-off cocks are generally fitted to each boiler, and why are they so fitted?

36.

Blow-off cocks are sometimes fitted with a spanner guard? For what purpose is this? Describe how the guard is formed.

37.

Water-gauge test-cocks; where are they placed? At what heights? Must the cocks themselves be at those heights? What provision is made for cleaning these cocks, should they ever become choked? When there are no test-cocks, how is the height of the water ascertained?

38.

What is a dead-weight safety valve? Of what are the rubbing surfaces formed? How is a lock-up valve arranged to admit of lifting it or of turning it round, and to prevent adding to the weight?

39.

About what area of safety valve is now required by the Board of Trade? What is the effect of suddenly opening a safety valve when steam is up? To about what extent do safety valves rise when blowing off without being eased by hand?

40.

Spring-loaded safety valves: what advantages have they that are not possessed by dead-weight valves? What are the disadvantages, if any, as compared with dead-weight valves?

41.

Of what pieces does a glass water gauge mounting consist? How does it act? Where is it placed? At what height? Is it liable to derangement? How is its working tested?

42.

Glass water gauges have sometimes pipe connections top and bottom: what is the object of this arrangement? Should there be cocks at the extremities of these pipes? Why? or why not?

43.

Describe a Bourdon steam gauge. Some gauges have an inverted syphon pipe below them; what is its use?

44.

Why is a small cock sometimes put on the pipe leading to a steam gauge? Where should it be placed, and what error might be made by omitting to use it?

45.

Do steam gauges indicate the total pressure of the steam, or only a portion of that pressure? What is the pressure measured from?

46.

What is meant by the salting of the boiler? How is this prevented? What is the density of ordinary sea water? How is the density ascertained? What is the difference between the formation of scale and the salting of the boiler? What is the maximum density at which boilers should be worked at sea? In the event of condenser tubes leaking, what is the minimum density at which boilers should be worked? Give your reasons.

47.

Scum cocks and pipes; how are they arranged? Where are they placed? At what height in the boiler? When are they used? When must they be shut? Neglect of these cocks lead to what dangers.

48.

Scale; of what does it consist? Where is it most objectionable? How is it removed? How is its formation prevented? What evil effects are produced by it?

49.

What is a Salinometer? Of what does it consist? How does it act? How is it graduated? Can it be used at any temperature indiscriminately?

50.

What harm may be done through the check valve of one of a set of boilers being defective while under way? How would you work to avoid this harm?

51.

How is the leak from a split tube stopped in a boiler at sea? Describe the operation.

52.

What is the use of dampers? Where are they fitted? When should they be used?

53.

When there are no dampers fitted, what is used instead? What evil to the boiler is sometimes attributed to this? When the heating surfaces are clean, does this occur?

54.

Describe the piston of a steam cylinder, with its different rings and their uses. There are generally round pieces let in flush on one side of a piston; what are they? How are these pieces fixed?

55.

Cylinder drain cocks; what is their use? There is sometimes a valve upon each cock; what purpose does it serve?

56.

Cylinder escape valves; of what do they consist? How protected? How regulated? When are they most needed? To what danger do they expose the engineer? What precaution is sometimes used to obviate this danger?

57.

What is a compound engine? What different kinds are there for screw steamers, in respect to the number and arrangement of their cranks and cylinders? What is a triple expansion engine?

58.

What is link motion? What are some of its advantages? In modern engines for the screw propeller, when there is no link motion, what takes its place?

59.

What is a separate expansion valve? Why is it not fitted to all engines? What effect has an expansion valve upon the starting and upon the reversing of the engine?

60.

What arrangement is applied to reduce the friction of a slide valve? To what is the friction due?

61.

Describe a loose eccentric; how does it act? In what engines are the loose eccentrics still employed?

62.

What is the travel of the eccentric rod? How is it measured on the eccentric? What is the travel on the slide valve when the link motion is in mid gear, and the engine still moving?

63.

What are "double beat valves"? What objections are here to their use?

64.

What is a circulating pump? Is it always worked by the main engine? Give an example from your last steamer of the three water temperatures generally noted by careful engineers.

65.

An air valve is sometimes fitted to a circulating reciprocating pump; what purpose does it serve?

66.

What is the difference between a bucket air-pump, a piston air-pump, and a plunger air-pump?

67.

Are double-acting air-pumps made with plungers, with pistons, or with bucket? Describe the construction and action of circulating pumps.

68.

What is an air-pump trunk? When is it necessary? How is it attached to the bucket? Centrifugal pumps: describe their construction and mode of working.

69.

What class of air-pump requires both foot and delivery valves, and in what other class can either of these valves be in some cases dispensed with?

70.

What are marine governors? What is their general construction? How do they act?

71.

With a surface condenser and a single acting air-pump, what is the effect of a leaky foot valve, and what is the effect of a leaky bucket when there is also a foot valve?

72.

Where is the air-pump pet cock or valve placed? How does it act? What is its object? Does it, in every case, reduce the effective capacity of the pump? Is it equally applicable to double-acting pumps?

73.

At what temperature is the hot well worked? What is the effect of higher temperatures? What is the effect of lower temperatures? What limits the lowness of temperature? Has a very low temperature any disadvantages?

74.

Bilge injection with jet condenser; what are the fittings required? When is it used? What precautions are necessary in using it?

75.

When surface condensers are used, what takes the place of the bilge injection? To what is the connection made? How is its valve formed? Why is this necessary?

76.

What are the practical guides to the proper amount of opening of the inlet valve for the circulating pump?

77.

Feed-pump pet-cock or valve: where is it placed? What is its use? How does it act? Is it always a necessary fitting?

78.

What are some of the ways of fastening the ends of surface condenser tubes? About what size and about what thickness are condenser tubes? What parts of a surface condenser are made of brass?

79.

What is a blow-through valve or cock? To what is it attached? There is sometimes a valve which, when opened, admits steam from the slide valve casing to the exhaust port: what is its use? To which cylinder is it fitted?

80.

What are snifting valves? Why are they generally omitted now?

81.

What connexions are generally fitted to the donkey pump and to what services can it be applied?

82.

When the engines are stopped in harbour with steam up, what are to be shut and what are to be opened?

83.

How is an engine heated up before starting? What precautionary examinations are made before starting?

84.

What is an interceptor or catch-water? Where is it fixed, what is its construction, how does it act, and what attention does it require?

85.

Describe an air-pump bucket, with its valve or valves and its packing. Of what are the valves generally made?

86.

Of what materials are air-pump rods made? Why?

87.

What is the racing of the engine? When does it occur? What danger attaches to it? What is done to prevent it?

88.

When under way, when the air-pump bucket is at the top of its stroke, at what height is the water in the condenser?

89.

What is meant by the "pitch" of a screw propeller? How is it measured?

90.

Explain the difference between a "right hand" and a "left hand" propeller, and state how each of them revolves?

91.

What is the slip of a screw propeller? How is its amount expressed in figures?

92.

Which of the valves about engines and boilers have to be worked by hand, which of them are self-acting, and which are worked by the motion of the engine?

93.

Why is soda sometimes put into a boiler, and how is it put in when under way? What is the kind of soda used?

94.

Tallow cups for cylinders were sometimes made with two small cocks, or with only one small cock, or with one large hollow plug cock, or with one small cock and a valve: which of these is suitable for a high-pressure cylinder, and which for the cylinder of a condensing engine? Describe how the cup with only one small cock is used. What is now generally used instead of these? How has this change come about?

95.

Does a cylinder escape valve, self-acting, allow all the water to escape? If not, how much is left in the cylinder?

96.

What is a "Steam Lubricator" (sometimes called an Impermeator)? Explain its action? To what part of the engine is it connected? Will throwing cold water over it make it work faster or slower? Describe the one used in your last steamer?

97.

A common paddle wheel: of what is the centre made? Of what are the arms formed? What is the form of the bolts which attach the floats to the arms? How are the arms attached to the centres?

98.

Why have some paddle wheels one or more cast-iron floats in each wheel? With what engines are these most required? At what part of the circumference are they placed?

99.

Why are paddle wheel floats sometimes made of different breadths in the same wheel? With what description of engine is this most needed? Where are the broad floats placed and where are the narrow floats placed in the circumference of the wheel?

100.

What difference is there between a radial paddle wheel and one with feathering floats? What is the object of feathering floats? Are all the eccentric rods attached in the same way, and are they all of the same form?

101.

Whereabout is the centre of the eccentric of a paddle wheel with feathering floats placed? In that case are the feathering levers on the striking face or on the back of the float? When the paddle shaft has an outer bearing, how is the eccentric made?

102.

Of what materials are the working surfaces of a paddle wheel with feathering floats? How are they lubricated?

103.

What is a "Disconnecting Paddle Engine?" At what place is the disconnecting effected? How is it accomplished? In which of the cranks of a disconnecting engine are the crank pins fixed?

104.

Is link motion valve gear or the loose eccentric generally used for disconnecting paddle engines? For what steamers are disconnecting paddle engines frequently employed?

105.

What are expansion joints? Where are they necessary? What attention do they require? Of what should the working surfaces be made?

106.

What omission in the construction of expansion joints may lead to a serious accident when steam is first applied? How is this prevented in the construction of a steam trunnion pipe for an oscillating engine?

107.

Describe an oil cup with a syphon worsted? How is the worsted arranged? How is it cleaned? How far down the tube does it extend?

108.

Describe a thrust bearing; which of the surfaces wears? Why is there sometimes a number of oil tubes for one thrust bearing?

109.

What parts of a screw shaft are generally covered with brass? Why is this necessary? About what thickness is the brass?

110.

What is the stern tube or screw shaft pipe? Why is a pipe of such a length required? Of what is it made? How is it fixed at each end?

111.

What is a lignum vitæ bearing? How is the wood fitted? Where is such a bearing generally used.

112.

How is a screw propeller fixed on the shaft? What means are used to prevent its getting loose at sea?

113.

Where are sluice valves placed? What large sluice valve is there in almost all screw steamers? From what position should this valve be worked? Why so? What attention should it receive?

114.

With a condensing engine, what valves or cocks are on the skin of the ship in the engine-room and in the stokehole?

115.

What are the necessary fittings of a marine boiler?

116.

With a surface condensing engine, what cocks or valves are opened some time before the engine is started so as to be ready for starting whenever the order is given?

117.

What is a steam jacket? What cocks are on it? In what engines are jackets most generally used? Do they require to be felted?

118.

What parts of an engine or its fittings should be felted or otherwise protected from radiation?

119.

What are the small cycliuders sometimes fitted on the slide valve casing cover of vertical engines? Explain their action. To what are they connected by a pipe? Why?

120.

Name the principal pipes in connection with the engines and boilers of a steamer, and state to what the ends of those pipes are connected?

121.

Through what cocks or valves, pipes and chambers does the water pass on its way from the sea inlet rose plate to the water space of the boiler, with a jet condenser?

122.

Through what cocks or valves, pipe and chambers does the circulating water of a surface condenser pass?

123.

Through what cocks or valves, pipes and chambers does the steam pass from the boiler until it is in the form of water in the hot well?

124.

Name the pieces of the engine through which the pressure of the steam is transmitted from the piston to the screw propeller? Name them in the order in which they act?

125.

What is an air vessel? How does it act? At what parts of an engine or of its fittings are air vessels generally applied?

126.

What is the construction of a mudbox? Where should madboxes be placed? Why are they necessary? How should the space be divided by the rose plate, and why?

127.

What is a trunk engine? Why has it fallen into disuse?

128.

What is an oscillating engine? For what steamers are oscillating engines generally adopted? Why? How is the steam conveyed to and from the slide valve casing?

129.

Of what parts does the valve motion gear of an oscillating engine consist?

130.

For what have geared engines sometimes been used? Of what were the cogs of the large wheel made?

131.

At what part of a screw steamer is the pressure that propels it applied to the hull?

132.

At what part of a paddle steamer is the pressure that propels it applied to the hull?

133.

About how much fuel per indicated horse-power per hour is required by modern steam engines, common, compound, and triple expansion?

134.

What is the explanation of the economy of the surface condenser?

135.

What is the construction of a surface condenser? Of what are its tubes made? How are they fixed? How are they kept tight? What is done with a split tube?

136.

Where do surface condensers foul? How are they cleaned?

137.

What non-conducting substances are employed to prevent radiation, and how are they applied?

138.

In the construction of smoke-box doors and of dry uptakes, what provision is made to lessen the amount of radiation?

139.

How can the formation of black smoke be prevented? Describe smoke-preventing apparatus?

140.

What is meant by "circulation" in a boiler, and what are the results of defective circulation?

141.

What means are sometimes adopted to improve the circulation in a boiler?

142.

By what arrangement is the circulation promoted in a "hay-stack" boiler?

143.

Describe a ship's side air-pump discharge valve; in what respects does it sometimes differ from a common stop valve, and what attention does it require?

144.

What is the construction of a feed escape valve, to what is its discharge connected, and how is its loading regulated? Where should the escaping water flow?

145.

When there is no feed escape valve, what is the arrangement of the feed valves or cocks?

146.

What is the measure of a horse-power? How is indicated horse-power ascertained?

147.

Has "nominal horse-power" a fixed meaning? What is the use of this expression? What is generally taken as the measure of one horse power nominal?

148.

What is "back pressure" in a cylinder? About how much is it in each of the cylinders in your last steamer? Is excessive cushioning ever a trouble under certain conditions in modern engines? Say when and why and in which cylinder this occurs?

149.

What is meant by "speed of piston?" About how much is the speed of piston in modern marine engines?

150.

What is "atmospheric pressure?" What is its average amount? What instrument tells this amount?

151.

What is "gross pressure" or "absolute pressure?" What pressure is it that is shown by the steam gauge?

152.

What is meant by "cutting off" steam? How is it done? What part of the valve regulates the cut off?

153.

What is a piston slide valve? Describe its construction? Why are they frequently employed in place of the common slide valve? Have they any disadvantages compared with a common slide valve? If so, name them.

154.

What fixes the time of closing the exhaust? After the exhaust is closed and before the port opens for steam, what becomes of the steam that is in the cylinder?

155.

What is the "lead" of the valve? What is its object? About what amount is it?

156.

What is the "cover" or "lap" of the valve? What is its object? About what proportion of the stroke of the valve is it made?

157.

What is the "exhaust cover" of a side valve? What is its effect upon cushioning and upon exhaust?

158.

What is "minus cover" or "minus lap" on the exhaust? What is its effect upon the exhaust and upon cushioning?

159.

What is "cushioning" or "compression" in a steam cylinder? How is it affected by the amount of cover or of minus cover there may be upon the exhaust? How is it affected by the exhaust pressure?

160.

What is "mean effective pressure"? How is its amount ascertained?

161.

What is a dial vacuum gauge? What is its construction? For what is it used? About what amount should it show when the engine is working all right? What effect has the variations it indicates on the performance of the engine?

162.

Does the vacuum gauge enable you to tell what pressure there is in the condenser, or must you have recourse also to the barometer to arrive at that? How would you ascertain the actual amount of back pressure there is in the condenser?

163.

What is a barometer? What is its construction? Is a barometer sometimes used instead of a vacuum gauge? In what respect does the weather barometer differ from the vacuum gauge barometer?

164.

The common vacuum gauge and the common steam gauge: in which of them are the graduations marked from atmospheric pressure? Does either of them tell what is the true actual pressure in the boiler or in the condenser?

165.

Do steam and vacuum gauges vary with the variations of the weather barometer? When the weather barometer varies from 29 to 31, how much will the vacuum gauge vary, and how will that affect the working of the engine? Why?

166.

Vacuum is generally stated as so many inches. What is meant by, say, 20 inches vacuum? What does that tell us about the absolute pressure of the vapour then in the condenser?

167.

From what depth will a pump draw water? Is there any limit? Why?

168.

What is vacuum? Can vacuum move a piston? When the temperature of the water in the condenser is 212° Fahrenheit, what is the greatest degree of vacuum there can then be in the condenser?

169.

What is a thermometer? What is its construction? What is the property of matter that is the principle of its construction? What temperatures are regularly noted by careful engineers?

170.

What is the temperature of (1) melting ice, (2) boiling water, (3) steam about 60 lbs. pressure by the steam gauge, (4) steam about 100 lbs. and (5) steam about 150 lbs., (6) smoke in the funnel, (7) water in the hot well?

171.

What is meant by the "conduction" of heat? Give examples of it in the boiler and in the engine.

172.

What is meant by the "convection" of heat? Give examples of it in the boiler and in the engine.

173.

What is meant by "radiation" of heat? Give examples of it in the boiler and in the engine.

174.

Which is convection, which is radiation, and which is conduction in the following cases?:—(1) Heat from the glowing fuel to the furnace crown. (2) Heat passing from one side of the furnace crown plate to the other. (3) Heat-passing from the steam pipes in the engine-room. (4) The heat of evaporation.

175.

What are the effective heating surfaces of a marine boiler?

176.

What parts of a marine engine are exposed to danger when the temperature is below freezing point?

177.

What precautions are necessary in cold climates when the temperature is below freezing point?

178.

State as many ways as you can by which a boiler might not get its full feed. A boiler, or one of a set of boilers, gets short of water although the feed valve is open its proper amount: to what causes might this be due?

179.

Of what are furnace bars generally made? About what thickness are they at the top? About what space is between them? Are the bars put further apart for Newcastle than for Welsh coal?

180.

Which burns faster—Newcastle coal or Welsh coal? Which is the flaming coal? Which makes most smoke?

181.

About how many tons of steam coal will be burnt per day in four furnaces, each 3′ 0″ wide, and of about the usual length? On what grounds do you say so?

182

About how many tons of steam coal will be burnt per day with good triple expansion engines to drive an ordinary steamer of 40 feet beam 10 knots an hour by steam alone? On what grounds do you say so? What percentage more coal would be required to propel the same steamer one knot faster?

183

About how many tons of steam coal will be burnt per day, with a good triple expansion engine, surface condensers the low pressure cylinder 60 inches diameter, doing average work? On what grounds do you say so?

184.

A pair of inverted cylinder direct acting engines, there is a liner half an inch thick between the ahead eccentric rod and the eccentric strap; in overhauling the engine this piece is lost and forgotten; what difference will its omission make in the working of the engine, on the admission, on the cut off, and on the exhaust of the steam? Which will take place earlier and which later, distinguishing between the up stroke and the down stroke?

185.

In a pair of inverted cylinder direct acting engines driving a right-hand screw: on which of the crosshead guide bars is the pressure greatest in the up stroke, and on which in the down stroke?

186.

A screw propeller is getting loose, it has a little play on the shaft, sideways on the key or feather: how will this show in the engine-room?

187.

How would you prove whether the centre line of the trunnions of an oscillating cylinder be fair with the centre line of the main shaft?

188.

How can the fairness of a line of screw shafting be tested without lifting the shafts?

189.

Where are steel forgings generally used in marine engines?

190.

What is the composition of nickel-steel? Where is it sometimes used in engines and boilers?

191.

How is forced draught generated on board ship and supplied to boiler-furnaces? Is the air heated before delivery? If so, how?

192.

What is "induced" draught? Compare the merits of "forced" and of "induced" draughts.

193.

How is the intensity of forced or induced draught measured? What is the usual pressure employed in the mercantile marine?

194.

An explosive gas is liberated from bunker coal. Usually in well ventilated bunkers this gas escapes into the atmosphere without doing harm. In ill-ventilated bunkers the gas after mixing with a certain proportion of common air has been known to explode when a naked light has been brought in contact with it. What is the composition of the gas? Where is it found, in bunkers, 'tween decks, pockets, and coal shoots? How may it be got rid of as soon as it evolves from the coal? How many cubic feet of air to one of the gas forms a violent explosive mixture?

195.

A lighted lamp or candle has sometimes been lowered into an apparently empty paraffin tank and produced in explosion resulting in injury to the person holding the light. What did the tank probably contain, and what produced the explosion?

196.

In vessels carrying coal-cargoes it has been observed that, generally speaking, the gas which escapes from the body of the coal is found more abundantly at the forward end of the hold than at the after end. Why should this be so?

197.

In recently opened ballast tanks, double-bottoms, and boilers, a light lowered into either has sometimes been extinguished. What would, in all probability, cause this?

198.

In double-bottom steamers where does the bilge water lie, and where are the roses of the bilge pipe fitted?

199.

What is the advantage of a large rose over a small one?

200.

Why, especially in vessels carrying cargoes liable to shift, should engine bilge suctions be fitted to both wings of the bilge?

201.

In a heavily listed vessel, why it is difficult to keep steam?

202.

If the engine bilge pumps get choked and water accumulates in the stokehold bilges, what effect does the water have upon the bilge boards and stokehold plates, when the ship is rolling violently ?

203.

In a triple-expansion engine, what spare gear do you consider necessary in the case of a foreign-going ship ? Also what stores would you provide for a voyage to New Zealand ?

204.

What means are sometimes provided for temporarily coupling together the broken parts of, say, a tunnel-shaft ? Describe the fitting.

205.

Does the pressure on the thrust-collars vary with the horse-power, or with the speed of the ship, or how ?

206.

If the holding-down bolts of a thrust-bearing should become slack, what effect would it have upon the working of the engines ?

207.

In an engine with three cranks, which of the three is subject to the greatest torsional stress (1) in going ahead (2) in going astern ?

208.

Is it usual to make the crank shaft of a triple or quadruple expansion engine in one piece ? And is the diameter of the shaft uniform from end to end ? Give your reasons for the practice which obtains ?

209.

In a "built" crank shaft how are the webs rigidly secured to the pins and to the body of the shaft ?

210.

There are various descriptions of donkey engines in use on board ship for pumping purposes. Some pumps are fitted with escape-valves, some are not. Why should this be ?

211.

Explain the function of an air-vessel fitted to a feed pump. Make rough hand sketches of (1) a satisfactory vessel, (2) an unsatisfactory vessel, where, say, the air-spring has been destroyed by carelessness, or has never been properly provided ?

212.

Should cocks or escape-valves be fitted to air-vessels ? Why, or why not ?

213.

Where, by preference, should the escape valve of a feed pump be placed ? Why ?

214.

Scum cocks are sometimes fitted to boiler shells at a height convenient for Engineers to manipulate when standing in the stokehold ; the scum pipes in such cases are led upward, inside the boiler, to a little above the combustion chamber tops. What danger may arise from this arrangement ?

215.

Cocks for testing the water level of boilers are sometimes fitted within reach of the engineer who is standing in the stokehold. These may have internal pipes leading upward and terminating at various levels. Under what circumstances may these become misleading ?

216.

Why should the pipe which leads from the bottom of the water-gauge column to the bottom of the boiler-front, or back, be covered with non-conducting material? Why also should it never have lengthy horizontal bends?

217.

In your own experience, how frequently is this pipe removed and cleared?

218.

Why, even with the best of water-gauges, is it advisable to occasionally use the drain-cock?

219.

Steam loops have sometimes been inadvertently made in the length of piping leading from the top of the water-gauge column to the top of the boiler. Roughly sketch such a loop and explain the danger arising from its existence?

220.

Describe your method of thoroughly testing the water-gauge system to satisfy yourself that all the cocks and pipes are clear. Your answer can be written on a supplementary sheet of foolscap, which the examiner will hand you. Hand sketches, mere lines indicating pipes and circles indicating cocks, should be made. Identify the cocks and pipes by letters or numerals.

221.

Describe the construction of a water-tube boiler, mentioning the type selected.

222.

In a water-tube boiler, how is an economiser fitted, and what is its duty?

223.

How is the water-gauge fitted in a water-tube boiler? Are glass-gauges used?

224.

The pressure of the steam in water-tube boilers is sometimes greater than at the engines. Why is this, and what percentage above the engine pressure does it amount to? How is this difference of pressure maintained?

225.

Describe any automatic method of feeding water-tube boilers. Of what material are the tubes made?

226.

Describe the construction of any steam turbine you are acquainted with, which is used on board ship. How is the expansion of steam effected? How many propeller shafts are employed, and how many propellers?

227.

Is the same power in a steam turbine available to go astern as to go ahead?

228.

Of what material are the propellers made in a steam turbine?

229.

How many pounds of coal per indicated horse-power per hour are burnt with this type of engine? Name the type of boiler in use.

230.

Describe one of the several classes of refrigerating machinery in use on board ship. Several types exist, one being more economical than the rest. Which is it?

231.

Describe the defects to which the selected type is subject. How are the defects overcome?

232.

How frequently are the parts opened out for examination? Name the parts.

233.

How frequently are the condensers of refrigerating plants opened for examination? How frequently are the coils tested by hydraulic pressure? On which side of the coil is corrosion most commonly found? Why should this be so?

234.

Where ammonia is used in refrigerating machinery should the machinery by preference be isolated? Why? In reply give what information you possess bearing on the matter, naming the ships for purposes of identification.

235.

Explain how the ammonia is removed from the tubes in which it is supplied, and how passed into the refrigerating machine.

236.

What objection is there to the presence of water in the ammonia?

237.

Describe the ammonia process of refrigeration.

238.

Of what material are the parts made which are in contact with the ammonia?

239.

Are escape-valves fitted to the compressors of ammonia machines?

240.

What is the maximum pressure found in the compressors of ammonia machines?

241.

What kind of pressure and other gauges are used in ammonia machines?

242.

Explain how carbolic acid is removed from the tubes in which it is supplied, and how passed into the refrigerating machine.

243.

What objection is there to the presence of water in the carbonic acid?

244.

Describe the carbonic acid process of refrigeration.

245.

Of what material are the parts made which are in contact with the carbonic acid?

246.

Are escape-valves fitted to the compressors of carbonic acid machines?

247.

What is the maximum pressure found in the compressors of carbonic acid machines?

248.

What kind of pressure and other gauges are used in carbonic acid machines?

249.

In which type of machine is brine used? What is its density? Where does it circulate?

250.

Are fans for circulating air used in any of these processes? If so, why are they necessary?

251.

What means are in some cases employed for ascertaining the temperatures of refrigerating chambers without entering them?

252.

What effect may the swabbing of the compressor-piston rods have upon the working of refrigerating machinery?

253.

What is a rectifier? Explain its use.

254.

Describe the cold-air process of refrigeration.

255.

Of what material are the air suction and delivery valves of a cold-air machine made? How are the valves kept on their seats?

256.

How many compressors are there to a cold-air machine?

257.

What is the duty of the expansion cylinder of a cold-air machine?

258.

What objection is there to the presence of moisture in the air passed through the cold-air machine?

259.

How is water to some extent removed from the air? What is the minimum temperature of the air?

260.

What is the maximum pressure found in the compressors of cold-air machines?

261.

What kind of pressure and other gauges are used in cold-air machines?

262.

In refrigerating engines generally, where is the exhaust steam led?

263.

Cold-air chambers on board ship are insulated. How, and why?

264.

Is it prudent to allow the wires of an electric circuit to pass through the insulation? Explain fully.

265.

Describe the construction of a feed water-heater and give the name of its manufacturer.

266.

Describe any well-known ash-ejector.

267.

Describe any well-known independent feed pumps.

268.

Are independent feed pumps automatic in their action? Explain the action.

269.

What advantage, if any, have independent feed pumps over feed pumps worked by the main engines?

270.

To about what temperature is the feed water raised by passing through a feed-heater?

271.

What fittings are usually placed on a feed-heater? Why are they necessary?

272.

Describe the construction of a feed filter, enumeratin gits valves and cocks.

273.

How can the filter be cleaned? and what ingredients are generally removed when cleaning takes place?

274.

What is the intercepting material in a filter made of? How is it fitted?

275.

Describe an evaporator, and mention the type.

276.

What fittings are necessary with evaporators?

277.

How is the brine got rid of in an evaporator?

278.

How may the evaporator coils be cleaned?

279.

What is a dynamo? Describe its various parts? For what is it used?

280.

In what respect does an electric motor differ from a dynamo? Where are electric motors sometimes used on board ship?

281.

Describe a system of electric lighting employed on board ship?

282.

How is the position of a fault in the electric circuit discovered?

283.

What is "sparking," and may it undersome circumstances (naming them) be a danger?

284.

What is "short-circuiting," and to what evil may it give rise?

285.

What means are employed to prevent any part of the circuit becoming overheated?

286.

Describe the features of an arc lamp.

287.

Describe the construction of a glow-lamp.

288.

What is the usual candle-power of the small glow-lamp-in general use on board ship?

289.

Define the following terms:—Ampere, volt, ohm, watt What is the measure of an electrical horse-power?

290.

Explain the uses of switches, brushes, commutators, cutouts, field-magnets, armatures and resistance-coils.

291.

Why is it desirable to fit a dynamo in a cool place on board ship?

292.

What undesirable effect will ultimately occur to an electric wire, whose sectional area is constantly diminishing, say, through corrosion?

293.

What danger might arise from leading electric wires through coal bunkers?

294.

Is it better to lead electric wires, above or below side-scuttles? Why?

295.

What instruments are used on board ship to ascertain the strength of an electric current?

296.

Many ocean-going steamers are fitted with hydraulic cranes, &c. Where do they obtain their power? How is the hydraulic pressure kept at a relatively constant amount?

297.

Is any difficulty experienced in working hydraulic cranes in frosty weather? If so, why?

298.

Describe any steam steering gear you are acquainted with.

299.

When the helm is put hard over and the ship is going full speed ahead, what prevents the rudder returning to the amidship position?

300.

In the case of a steamship under way, does the officer, or man manipulating the steam steering wheel, overcome any resistance exerted by the rudder.

301.

Explain clearly what is being done by a helmsman manipulating the wheel of a steam steering engine.

302.

Is there any difference between the amount of horse-power required to put a helm hard over, in a given time when the vessel is going full speed ahead, and when she is going full speed astern? This question refers to the case of a steamer fitted with one rudder only, and demands a more complete answer than merely "yes" or "no."

303.

What precautions should be taken before removing a manhole-door of a steam-boiler? In the absence of such precautions what casualties might occur?

304.

Describe the chief features of the engine-governor fitted to a steamer you have served in. Describe its action. Give the maker's name and name of ship.

NOTE.—The following six questions refer to oil-motors, fitted to launches which carry passengers:—

305.

Name the principal parts of an oil motor, and briefly state their functions. Give the name of the makers of the motor.

306.

What kind of oil is usually employed in oil motors? What is its flashpoint? What is its specific gravity? What is its calorific power? What precautions are taken in its storage to guard the public against casualty by fire or explosion?

307.

How many cylinders are generally used in oil motors? What kind of pistons are fitted? How frequently (measured in revolutions) is explosion per cylinder effected? How is explosion in the cylinder carried out?

308.

Describe how an oil motor is started. If starting prove difficult, where would you chiefly look for defects? How is piston speed modified? How is the speed of vessel varied? How is reversing effected?

309.

Before examining an oil motor with a naked light, what steps should be taken for safety's sake?

310.

How frequently should an oil motor, working 12 hours a day, be opened up for examination, cleaned and its parts readjusted? What difficulty arises when the internal parts become foul with carbonised oil?

NOTE.—Questions should be read in the light of their context. Thus the "sparking" referred to in question 283 relates to the sparking in an electric lighting circuit on board ship. See question 281.

APPENDIX C.

EXAMINATION IN ROUGH WORKING DRAWING FOR A FIRST CLASS ENGINEER'S CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY (FORM EXN. 17).

1. The regulations in regard to the qualifications of a candidate for a first class engineer's certificate of competency specify that—

> "He must be able to make rough working drawings of the different parts of the engines and boilers.
> "He must be able to state the general proportions borne by the principal parts of the machinery to each other."

2. In accordance with these clauses, a candidate for a first class certificate is required to make a rough working drawing of the parts specified as on page 66. An engineer who has been some years in charge of marine engines and boilers ought to have familiarly in his mind the general construction of at least one set of engines and boilers, say that set he was last with. Fine drawing is not expected, and in the proportions of the parts a wide margin will be allowed absurd dimensions will be failure in practical knowledge.

3. The drawing must, however, be practically a working drawing, giving a sufficient number of views to show the parts fully—sections, plans, or elevations, just as the candidate would require to be supplied to him if he had to make the parts to the design of another person.

4. A clear hand sketch showing the construction completely and fully dimensioned will be accepted if the candidate prefers this alternative.

5. A portion only of the parts specified may be accepted in place of the whole, if that portion is sufficient to show that the candidate has a good practical idea of the construction of the parts, and a fair notion of their general proportions or dimensions.

6. Candidates are hereby cautioned not to put on paper what they have not fully considered, and deliberately intend to be understood, as their statement of what they know about the construction of any part required.

7. The statements given in by a candidate may be in themselves, apparently, of little importance, but a sample material from which the state of the candidate's knowledge of engines and boilers is to be inferred, every detail which is glaringly inconsistent with a sound knowledge of the use of the part, or in which an essential consideration has evidently been overlooked, is an important element in the description which the candidate is given of his own qualifications.

8. The candidate is advised not to being more than he can clearly finish in the time allowed. An important object in this part of the examination is to ascertain whether the candidate can be trusted to mark all necessary dimensions upon a sketch or a drawing. The test of this is, practically, the making of the part from the sketch without having to supply additional dimensions, and without measuring the drawing. To prove this ability the candidate must fully dimension the parts shown in his sketch or drawing, notwithstanding that the parts may be correctly drawn to scale. A drawing is fully dimensioned when no part of it is left to the option of the party who is to work to the drawing.

9. To prevent misunderstanding, however, when the candidate has been led into showing more of the details than he has time fully to finish, he should name, in the statement on the other side, the particular parts which he has fully dimensioned.

10. All dimensions should have lines and darts, to indicate distinctly the points between which the dimensions are given.

11. Beware of writing cross dimensions upon centre lines, or upon longitudinal dimension lines. This is not an order but a recommendation.

12. The candidate is not expected to design anything; he has merely to sketch or draw a something with which he is expected to be already familiar. At the same time he should call attention to any defect in the design of the article or apparatus. Omission to do so will imply want of practical knowledge.

13. Pencil in nothing after half-past 3; all the dimensions, the figures and the darts must be inked in; employ the remaining time in examining the drawing and in inking in any figures which may have been before overlooked, and in checking the dimensions.

14. Make sure that you will have sufficient room on the drawing sheet to show all the necessary views. You can have another sheet of drawing paper if necessary. All the paper used must be forwarded with the drawing.

SUBJECT FOR EXAMINATION IN ROUGH WORKING DRAWING (FORM EXN. 17A).

APPENDIX D.

READING THE WATER-GAUGES.

NOTWITHSTANDING that the reading of the water-gauge is made a special feature in the examination of engineers, many boiler casualties result from the engineer of the watch either not understanding the construction of the water-gauge fittings or not satisfying himself by actual trial that the cocks, pipes, &c., are clear.

In one case, two furnace crowns came down in a steamer that was just starting on a voyage. The engineers were satisfied that there was plenty of water in the boiler because the water-gauge showed full glass, and they called the attention of a Board of Trade Surveyor to this fact as being conclusive evidence that the casualty could not have resulted from shortness of water. On examination of the fittings, however, it was found that the cock between the boiler and the steam pipe leading to the gauge was shut, having been carelessly left in that position on the previous day when the mountings were overhauled for survey. Directly the cock was opened the water disappeared from the gauge-glass, and the second engineer admitted that he had blown down the boiler in order to lower the water level, as the glass was full.

Many steamers have had their furnaces brought down at sea in a similar manner to the above through what the engineers of the watch have called "false water in the glass," and which on examination has been found to result from the top communication being choked.

These casualties resulted from what, to say the least, was bad management, not false water.

Unless a candidate under examination is able to prove that he understands how to verify the indications of the water-gauge, he should not be passed in practical knowledge, and, as failure in practical knowledge involves the candidate going to sea for another three months before being eligible for re-examination, the examiner should explain to such candidate his error, after failing him in order to prevent further casualties resulting from his want of knowledge on this subject.

The sketches, Figures 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, Plate I, represent the usual methods of attaching water-gauge mountings to marine boilers. The important features in each gauge and the method of verifying its indications are dealt with separately in the following remarks:—

Plate I.

In this case the water gauge cocks are attached direct to the boiler, and the accuracy of the gauge when the boiler is under steam can be tested as follows:—

First.—Let B remain open, then close cock D and open cock E, and if steam issues it proves that cock B and the passage through the top fitting and gauge glass are clear. If no steam or water issues, either cock B or the passage through the top fitting and gauge glass is choked and the gauge cannot act properly until the obstruction is removed.

Second.—Close cock B and open D and E, and if water issues, cock D is clear. If no water or steam issues, either cock D or the passage from the boiler through the lower fitting is choked and must be cleared before the gauge can act properly.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 2 ONLY.

In this case the gauge cocks are attached to a bent pipe of comparatively large diameter (at least 3 inches in the bore), the upper end of which communicates with the steam space, and the lower end with the water space of the boiler. Owing to the bore of the pipe being large it is not liable to become choked or stopped under the ordinary conditions of working. The water-gauge is, therefore, in practically the same condition as if it were attached direct to the boiler, as in Figure 1. This gauge, when at work, is tested in precisely the same manner as the one shown in figure 1.

Screw plugs are inserted at PP and QQ, by the removal of which the apertures in the pipe can be cleared, if necessary, by the insertion of a wire or rod when steam is down.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 3 ONLY.

In this gauge there is an open communication from A to C through the column Y, and in order to "blow through the glass" it is only necessary to shut cocks D and B alternately, keeping E open. But to "blow through the water-gauge," including the pipes H and I, it is necessary, after blowing through the glass as described above, to shut A and C alternately, at the same time keeping B, D and E open for such time as will ensure the complete discharge of the contents of the gauge and its connections. When B, D and C are clear and A choked, the steam lodging in the glass and in the pipe I leading from column Y to A becomes condensed, and the water flowing through C to take its place rises in column Y and in the glass to a level above that of the water in the boiler. In other words, the gauge shows a false level. If now E be opened and water is blown out, then on E being again closed the water in the gauge will rise higher than before and be still further misleading. On the other hand, when B, D and A are clear and C choked, the water, if any, in the glass is trapped and no longer rises and falls with the water in the boiler or with the motion of the vessel; it, however, slowly rises in the glass owing to the condensation of the steam in the upper part of the gauge until such time as E is opened, when the whole of the water in the glass is blown out, and on E being closed the glass does not show any water notwithstanding that the water in the boiler may be at the proper level. When the test cocks TTT are attached to column Y, as shown in Figure 3, they cease to be reliable when either cock A or C or the pipe in connection therewith is choked, or nearly choked.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 4 ONLY.

Sometimes the water-gauge fittings are arranged as shown in Figures 4 and 5, with no passage up the column, the central portion (N) of the column being simply a pillar or connecting piece of any convenient section between the upper and lower portions to which the cocks B and D are attached.

By this arrangement double communications are obviated and there is no need for what is known as "double shut off" in testing the accuracy of the gauge. When, however, the gauges are constructed in this manner the cocks B and D are unreliable as test cocks in the event of there being no glass in the gauge. This feature should be carefully noted. Moreover, when in working condition the reduction of pressure in the glass which arises when E is opened causes the water in pipe H to rise above its normal level. This objectionable feature should also be noted.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 5 ONLY.

Sometimes there is a bend, L, in the steam pipe I leading from cock A to cock B. This has occasionally escaped observation when new boilers have been fitted on board ship. In most cases this bend arises from the pipe being led in an abnormal direction to escape other pipes, beams or fittings near the smoke-box. With such a bend the condensed steam collects in the pipe and falls to the bottom of the bend, and in time it completely fills the pipe from J to K. The steam from K down to the level of the water in the glass is thereby trapped and, as condensation proceeds, leads to a reduction of pressure in the pipe below that of the boiler and an equivalent rise of the water in the bend and also in the gauge-glass. When the vessel is quiescent the water in the gauge-glass increases in height until cock E is opened or until the pressure in the boiler is so much in excess of that in the lower part of pipe I as to cause the water in the bend to be blown into the gauge-glass In either case instantaneous change of water level ensues.

In the ordinary course of working the phenomenon described above is more or less modified by the presence of air in the upper part of the gauge and by the rise and fall of the water in the boiler and gauge-glass arising from the rolling or pitching motions of the vessel.

OTHER SPECIAL POINTS TO BE NOTED.

When the cocks A and C are omitted, as in figure 2, it is owing to the bore of the stand pipe being sufficiently large to enable it to be regarded as part of the boiler. Such pipes require, however, to be examined and cleared at intervals by passing a rod through the holes provided for the purpose at PP and QQ.

Cocks at A and C are not necessary for the testing of gauges arranged as shown in Figures 4 and 5 Examiners ought, however, to make sure that candidates are aware of the impossibility of testing the reliability of the indications of water-gauges arranged as in Figure 3 when the cocks A and C are absent and of the effect which the choking of cock A or C or pipe H or I has on the indications of the test-cocks T T T attached to column Y.

Probably more than half the steamers afloat are fitted with water guages as shown in Figures 3 and 4, and it is therefore specially important that engineer candidates should thoroughly understand their construction, the principle on which they act, and the steps which must be taken to keep them in an efficient condition.

When fitting a gauge-glass into its place it is specially important that it should not be placed so high as to prevent a clearing rod being inserted at G, figures 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. This defect, especially if it occurs in a water-gauge attached to a boiler subject to priming, permits a rapid accumulation of scum around the top of the glass and results in the choking of the orifice leading from cock B to the gauge-glass in each of the figures.

When a gauge-glass is too short or is placed either too high or too low in the fittings, it is also liable to become choked by the packing material being forced over its ends by the glands whilst being screwed up.

The use of unsuitable or insecure internal pipes in connection with either the ordinary gauge-glass cocks of the description shown in Figure 1, or with test-cocks which are joined to the boiler itself, should also be carefully guarded against.

Boiler casualties have resulted from the cocks B and D having the parts wrongly placed as shown in Figure 6, Plate II. In one case of that kind which forms the subject of Report No. 208 under the Boiler Explosions Acts, the engineer in testing the water-gauge omitted to see that the passages in the cocks B and D were clear when the handles were in their proper working position. This effect could easily have been discovered if proper attention had been paid to the condition of the cocks. A defect of this nature may be due to faulty construction originally, or to the handle of the cock having been overstrained, and the neck twisted. Whether the passages in the plugs are fair and clear can, however, be verified in a few minutes. As an illustration, the water cock D, Figure 6, Plate II, can be verified by blowing through E with B shut and then moving the handle of D to one side until it is just closed, and then to the other side until it is again just closed; the proper working position of the handle is about equally distant from each of the above positions. The other cocks can be verified in the same manner.

Another serious casualty occurred through the handle of the cock A, Figure 3, having been twisted from its original position relatively to the orifice of the cock, resulting in the cock being shut when apparently open.

When a water-gauge, that is clear in all its parts, has been thoroughly blown through, the water in the glass rises above the level at which it formerly stood, immediately the drain cock E is closed, but if left undisturbed for a time it gradually falls to its former position. The amount of rise which occurs on these occasions depends chiefly on the temperature of the contents of the boiler and on the length of the pipes by which column Y is connected top and bottom to the boiler, but in cases where the gauge is of the description illustrated in Figures 3, 4 and 5, it amounts in high pressure boilers to about 4 inches, while the time occupied by the water in returning to its former level ranges from 30 to 40 minutes. The cause of this rise is twofold, namely (a) the displacement of the comparatively cold water in pipe H by hotter and proportionately lighter water from the boiler, and (b) a slight condensation of the steam and a corresponding fractional reduction of pressure in pipe I. The cause of the gradual subsidence of the water in the glass to its former level is also of a dual character, namely (a) the cooling of the water in pipe H, and (b) the diminution in the condensation of steam in pipe I owing to the collection therein of air released from the steam condensed.

These results will, however, be somewhat modified if the water in the boiler is of higher density than in pipe H, and this will nearly always be the case owing to the condensation of the steam in the glass and upper fittings of the water-gauge, causing the water in the lower part to be fresher than that in the boiler.

The examiner should impress upon candidates the necessity for periodically blowing through the water-gauge on each boiler (no matter what the form may be) in a systematic and thorough manner, and, in cases where a boiler is fitted with two water-gauges, of keeping both in constant use; finally, he should further impress upon them the necessity for keeping the water-gauges well lighted, clean, and in all respects efficient.

APPENDIX E.

EXAMINATION OF MASTERS AND MATES IN STEAM.

These examinations are provided for the purpose of giving Masters and Mates who are possessed of Certificates of Competency an opportunity of undergoing a voluntary examination as to their practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine. The examiners are appointed by Government.

The examination is open to any person who holds a Certificate of any grade in the Foreign or Home trade or as Master of his own pleasure yacht. Candidates should fill up the form of application, Form Exn. 2, at the Port Office, pay the fee of Rs. 15, and deposit their Certificates with the Port Officer, who will inform the applicant when and where to attend to be examined. If the candidate fails to pass his Certificate will be at once returned to him.

If he passes, the report (Exn. 15) will be sent to the Port Officer, and the Certificate, together with the Form Exn. 2, will be sent to the Government; the words "Certified to have passed in steam," with the date and place of examination, will then be entered on the Certificate and its counterpart, and the Certificate will be sent to the Superintendent of the Mercantile Marine Office of the port named in the Form Exn. 2, and be delivered to the candidate in the usual manner.

If a candidate fails, he may not present himself for re-examination until the expiration of three months from the date of failure.

The examination is for the most part viva voce, and extends to a general knowledge of the practical use and working of the steam engine, and of the various valves, fittings, and pieces of machinery connected with it; and of the way in which electric lighting is carried out on board ship. Theoretical questions on calculations of horse-power or areas of cylinders and valves or any of the more difficult questions relating to steam-engines and boilers will not be asked.

Examiners are to satisfy themselves that the candidates know the names and understand the uses of the various parts of engines and boilers, and their connecting pipes, valves, cocks, &c. Practical knowledge, as distinguished from theories and abstruse calculations, is to be the test of the candidate's fitness to have his Certificate endorsed.

The examiner should arrange to conduct part of the examination in the engine-room of a steamship, unless from circumstances he finds it impossible to do so; but in the event of the candidate passing, the examiner should state in writing what circumstances prevented a visit to an engine-room. If an opportunity offer, the candidate should be permitted, under the guidance of the examiner, to start and stop the engine of some vessel which may have her steam up.

The examiner, in sending in his report of the examination, should state whether the examination has been held.

Candidates will be required to give written answers to sixteen out of twenty questions taken from the Elementary Questions printed in Appendix B. These questions will be altered from time to time without notice. The twenty questions are not to be difficult, theoretical, or book question, but are to be such as any man of ordinary capacity, who has any practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine, ought to answer.

If a candidate refers to any book or paper or memorandum, or obtains information from another candidate during the examination, he will be treated as having failed, will forfeit his fee, and will not be allowed to be re-examined for a period of three months.

The examiners will report in the case of failure, the nature of the question or questions that decided the failure, or the point in the management of the engine in which the candidate was deficient.

There is nothing in the regulations requiring that applicants for the voluntary examination shall have served on board steamships; all that is required is that they shall have a practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine. Examiners will not fail to appreciate the fact that practical knowledge is best gained in the engine-room; and the examination of an officer who does not produce official evidence of service in steamships, and of experience of engines, must necessarily be more searching than in the case of one who produces evidence of such service and experience.

Examiners will require all candidates to fill up a Form Exn. 15 (b), and they will forward it to the Port Officer with the report of the examination.

Masters and Mates may cancel questions A, B, and C, but they should fill up the form for questions D, E, F, and G, as evidence of their practical knowledge.

A candidate for this examination is required to have a thorough grasp of the construction of the steam-engine and boiler, to enable him, in the first place, to understand the nature and importance of any defect which may be reported to him by the Chief Engineer, and so that he may work in harmony with him in affording time and facilities for disconnexions, inspections, adjustments, and repairs.

To have a looking-on knowledge of what the principal repairs are about engines and boilers and pipes, and how these repairs are accomplished.

To be able to form an independent opinion as to a breakdown, and the consequent propriety or impropriety of proceeding under steam with temporarily repaired or defective machinery.

To understand how to estimate approximately the reduction of fuel required for reduced speed, and consequently to sanction such reduction of speed as may seem to him to be warranted by the report of the Chief Engineer, and to satisfy himself before leaving port that there is sufficient coal for the voyage.

To have an intelligent grasp of the general run of pipes and connexions in the engine-room, the marking of cocks, the opening and closing of cocks and valves, how mistakes of importance may be made in the confusion of an accident and how best to guard against such mistakes.

To be capable of being left in charge of the feeding of a set of boilers, to understand the working of the water-gauge, and to be able to guard against being misled by false indications of the gauge glass.

To understand about blowing down and surfacing, the reasons for doing so, and the danger which may result from the neglect of these under certain circumstances

A master or mate presenting himself for examination in steam must be understood to have made up for his want of practical experience by reading up about the steam-engine. He ought, therefore, to show that he has given his mind to intelligently understanding the rationale of the action of the steam-engine. Under this head he should, therefore, be able to state approximately the quantity of heat required in the formation of steam, the remarkable relation of "latent" heat to "sensible" heat, how much steam can be raised by the combustion of one pound of coal, what horse-power measure is, what indicated horse-power is, what is the action of the slide-valve, the course of the steam through the engine, and the advantage of working expansively, and how the expansive action is shown by the indicator diagram. To know the uses of the various parts of the engines and dynamos used for electric lighting, and how they and the cables are fitted in the hull; how wires are jointed, insulated, and cased; why it is desirable that they should be led along places which are dry and accessible; what is "sparking" and what are the causes which produce it; what is its danger in coal bunkers and petroleum-carrying steamers; what are the uses of switches and cut-outs, and why is it so important to prevent short-circuiting taking place.

The candidate has to answer in writing 16 out of 20 questions selected from the Elementary Questions (see Appendix B).

Selections for this examination are given on the alphabetic sheet for "Steam." Generally, these answers are given by candidates as learned by rote from a book; the candidate should therefore be asked such viva voce questions as will necessitate his giving his answers in different words, so as to discover whether he has the root of the matter in him.

The principal part of the viva voce is the examination on board a steamer, preferably one with which he is unacquainted. He is told to look about and try to find out the run of the machinery without the assistance of anyone; the examiner to be in the engine-room to see that this independent examination is properly carried out. When the candidate reports that he thinks he knows the whole arrangement of the machinery, the Examiner will then question him on the uses of the parts, get him to point out the different cylinders, pumps valves, condenser, &c.; also the dynamo, its field-magnets, armature, commutators, brushes, cables, &c. He must show that he understands the run of the pipes in the bilges, not necessarily that he has gone over every one of them, but he ought to be directed to trace, at least, one important range of pipes and to thoroughly satisfy the examiner that he could be safely trusted to manipulate the valves or cocks in connexion therewith. It will not often be practicable for the candidate to be asked to actually work engines under steam, but he must satisfy the examiner that he knows how to do so, and that he is aware what precautions have to be taken in regard to water in the cylinder, &c. It is most important that a candidate should show that, in the event of an accident depriving him of the assistance of engineers, he knows what to do to safely take his vessel to an anchorage, or to stop the engines and proceed under sail alone.

The examination of a mate in steam is the same as that of a master. The knowledge required has no reference to the mate's position. A mate may be examined, but such examination implies that the mate will one day be a master, when the possession of the knowledge will be an advantage to him in the discharge of his duties as master.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1. The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2. The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3. The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4. Each lot shall contain five chests.

5. A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the after-noon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.
On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.
And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

6. The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realisation in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8. No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the 5th day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9. The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

11. No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12. The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bond fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;

No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

SRIGOPAL BHATTACHARJEE,

Secretary.

CALCUTTA,
The 10th December 1909.

RULES FOR THE AWARD OF ORISSA LAW SCHOLARSHIPS.

(Approved under Government order No. 4067, dated 15th November 1909.)

1. Government will award annually six Law Scholarships to students from Orissa. The Scholarships shall be of the value of Rs. 30 a month each, and shall be tenable for two years either at the University Law College, Calcutta, or the Government Law College at Bankipore. The Scholarships shall be open to competition only amongst students who have graduated from Ravenshaw College, Cuttack.

2. Of the six scholarships four shall, subject to the condition in rule 3, be reserved for Uriyas, and two shall be awarded in open competition amongst Uriyas and domiciled non-Uriyas, these scholarships being awarded to the two students who stand at the top of the list.

3. It shall be open to the Director of Public Instruction in his discretion to award one of the four reserved scholarships to an Uriya Mubammadan in the event of a deserving candidate coming forward, and not gaining one of the two open scholarships.

4. The B. A. Examination shall be the basis of award, and candidates shall be ranked according to the percentage of marks gained at the B. A. Examination, subject to the conditions mentioned below.

5. Candidates who pass the B. A. Examination at the first attempt shall be given preference over those who pass at the second attempt, and those who pass at the second attempt, over those who pass at the third.

6. Candidates who pass the B. A. Examination within two years after passing the F. A. Examination shall rank above those who take more than two years.

7. Applications for these scholarships shall be submitted to the Principal, Ravenshaw College, before the College closes for the summer vacation. They must include particulars under the following heads:—

1. Name, address and residence of applicant.
2. Caste or creed.
3. Year of passing the F. A. Examination.
4. Year of passing the B. A. Examination.
5. In the case of domiciled non-Uriyas, the period of domicile in Orissa.

8. The Principal shall forward the list with his recommendations without delay, in order to permit of the award being made immediately after the results of the B. A. Examination are published.

9. A scholarship may be refused to a candidate, otherwise eligible, in the event of his behaviour as a student or after leaving college not having been such as to commend him to the favour of Government.

10. The award of the Director of Public Instruction shall be final.

JOHN RICHARD CUNNINGHAM,
Assistant Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT, BENGAL.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Government of Bengal has sanctioned the institution of six special scholarships, as noted below, for the benefit of Uriya students who join the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur. The amount of the scholarships is fixed so as to cover the cost of board and tuition at the College—

(1) Two special Sub-Overseer scholarships of Rs. 15 each a month, tenable for two years in the junior section of the Apprentice Department.

(2) Two special Overseer scholarships of Rs. 15 each a month, tenable for two years in the senior section of the Apprentice Department.

(3) One special Overseer (Practical Training) scholarship of Rs. 10 a month, tenable for 18 months during the period of practical training in the Apprentice Department.

(4) One special Engineering scholarship of Rs. 20 a month, tenable for four years in the Engineer Department.

2. The Overseer (Practical Training) scholarship will be awarded for the first time on the results of the Overseer examination of 1912. The other scholarships will be awarded from the year 1910-11.

The continuance of the special Sub-Overseer scholarships will be liable to reconsideration when the status of the Cuttack Survey School is raised.

3 Uriya students will be eligible for the scholarships in question whether their religion be Hindu, Muhammadan, Christian or other, the sole test of eligibility in this regard being that of race.

In the absence of eligible Uriya candidates, the scholarships will not be awarded.

4. Candidates for these scholarships must possess the educational qualifications for admission laid down for regular students of the Department. A concession of two years in the maximum limit of age is allowed to them.

5. Students securing these scholarships will not receive reduction or remission of the ordinary college fees.

6. Applications for these scholarships should be accompanied by—

(1) a certificate of moral character from the head of the institution at which the candidate last studied, and

(2) certificates as to the respectability of his family and of his eligibility under the rules for the scholarship applied for.

7. Applications for the scholarship tenable in the Engineer Department should be sent together with the formal applications for admission to the Engineer Department, and the usual registration fee of Rs. 4 (which shall in no case be refunded), so as to arrive at the office of the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, not later than the 15th of June in each year.

Applications for the special (1) Sub-Overseer, (2) Overseer and (3) the Practical Training (Overseer) scholarships should be sent together with the applications for admission to (1) the first year class, (2) the Sub-Overseer examination and (3) the Overseer examination respectively. Such applications should reach the office of the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, not later than the date which may be fixed in any year as the last date on which applications for admission to the class or examination in question will be accepted.

8. For information not contained in the above rules, applications should be made to the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.

DRAFT NOTIFICATION.

REFERENCE is invited to Government Resolution No. 1028T.G., dated 10th June 1907, with which the revised syllabuses for Standards I and II in boys' and girls' schools were published for general information.

2. In paragraph 7 of the Resolution it was clearly set down that the supplementary courses of study prescribed for boys' schools should be compulsory in all girls' schools.

3. Inasmuch, however, as the supplementary course in Arithmetic for Standard II has by oversight been omitted from the curriculum for Standard II in girls' schools, it is hereby announced that the supplementary course in Arithmetic for Standard II in boys' schools should be understood to form part of the obligatory course in all girls' schools

Advertisement for Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estates, situate in the district of Hooghly, will be put up to sale at the Collectorate on the 4th January 1910, corresponding to 20th Pous 1316 B.S.

The purchaser will be subject to the following conditions of sale:—

Conditions of sale.

1st.—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price, which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of the estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2nd.—The sale is to be subject to the existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and to the laws in force; and purchaser to be bound to respect the rights of the resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of the purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount to be paid at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, the one-fourth of the amount of bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by the noon of the 15th day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by the noon of the succeeding day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be put up to sale again at the risk of the defaulting purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

THE Suri Cattle and Produce Exhibition will be held (for the 14th year) at Barabagan, Suri Railway station on the Ondal-Sainthia Chord Railway in the district of Birbhum, on the 28th January and three following days. The grounds will be open for the sale of articles from the 26th January for a week. Cattle, Agricultural Produce and Indigenous manufactures will be received as Exhibits on the 28th and 29th January. Prizes in money, Medals, Certificates and selected seeds and implements amounting to the value of about Rs. 900 will be awarded for exhibits of this district as well as for those of good quality of other districts. Intending exhibitors should prepare their exhibits and begin to make collections of indigenous articles from now, for which rewards will be amply given. Dealers and performers of Music and Sports may come and open their Stalls in the Exhibition ground two or three days beforehand. They should communicate with the Secretary about sites and other particulars at least a week before. The Railway Company is expected to make some concessions in the rates for luggage, etc., and the Exhibition Committee will also bear a portion of the expenses for bringing and taking back the exhibits from distant places.

H. A. LAWE, for Collector.

Suri, the 15th December 1909.

Notice to Tenderers No. $\frac{B}{W}$ 7.

I.—Sealed Tenders for the supply of the undermentioned supplies from 1st April 1910 to 31st March 1911 will be received by the Station Supply Officer, Presidency Brigade, up to 12 noon on the 10th January 1910.

II.—Forms of "Tender" and "Schedules" (I. A. F. 2120, 2121 and 2122) of the stores for the supply of which tenders are invited, are obtainable on payment at the rate of Re. 1 per set on application in writing, up to 4th January 1910.

III.—Tenders will only be received in accordance with the conditions on these printed forms, which must be submitted in English and should specify in words as well as in figures the rate at which each description of article named in them will be delivered. Fractional parts of pies in rates will not be accepted. Tenders must be duly signed and completed in accordance with the instructions they contain.

IV.—Tenders should be accompanied by a deposit in the form of a $\frac{\text{Presidency Bank}}{\text{Treasury}}$ Receipt or Government Promissory Notes, Provincial or Municipal debentures, or port trust bonds, as earnest money, at the rate of 2 per cent. on the total value of the stores tendered for, as noted below, which deposit will be returned on acceptance or rejection of the tender. In the case of Promissory Notes being furnished, they must remain in the name of the depositor.

V.—No security or deposit which the tenderer may have furnished in connection with a previous contract or on any other account can be accepted as earnest money.

VI.—The approval or rejection of tenders rests with the General Officer Commanding 8th Division who reserves to himself the right of rejecting any tender, or any items in a tender, without cause assigned. The lowest tender will not of necessity be accepted.

VII.—Tenders will be opened at this office at 12 noon on Monday, the 10th January 1910. Tenderers are invited to attend.

VIII.—Parties tendering are particularly requested to give their addresses in full

IX.—Any further information required can be obtained on application to this office between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M (Sundays and holidays excepted).

X.—Tenders must be sent under a strong cover, securely fastened, sealed with a distinctive device and conspicuously marked "Tender for the supply of Firewood", and addressed to the Station Supply Officer, Presidency Brigade, and not to any officer by name.

XI.—Tenders which do not comply with the above conditions will be rejected.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

Published in FOUR SERIES, viz.

CALCUTTA MADRAS, BOMBAY AND ALLAHABAD.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, are printed in monthly Parts, which are issued, as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad respectively.

The Reports comprise four Series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court.

The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt: and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

Persons desiring to subscribe for or purchase the Reports should apply to—the Officer in charge, Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, Calcutta, or

the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, or

the Superintendent, Government Central Press, Bombay, or

the Curator of Government Books, United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, Allahabad.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

THIRD REPORT OF THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, DECEMBER 1909.

[On an average of the five years ending 1907-08, the area under the cotton crop in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 0·35 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.]

Explanatory.—This forecast deals with the estimates of the area sown with cotton crops (both early and late) and also gives an estimate of their probable outturn.

Character of the season.—The weather has been favourable in all the important early cotton districts. In the Southal Parganas, the most important of early cotton growing districts, the prospects of the crop are very good owing to favourable weather conditions. The weather and rainfall have not been as favourable for the late cotton crops. In Saran, the most important of the late cotton growing districts, and in Muzaffarpur, the crop suffered from excessive rain. Next in importance are Darbhanga and Singhbhum, and the crops in these two districts are reported to be in good condition.

Area sown.—The area sown with early cotton is now estimated at 34,110 acres as against 31,230 acres sown last year. The area sown up to now with late cotton amounts to 28,377 acres. Last year's area under the crop was 32,869 acres. Harvesting of the early cotton crop has begun in normal time. Sowings of the late crop are still going on in some districts. They have not yet commenced in Cuttack.

Outturn.—The estimated outturn of early cotton in this Province has according to estimates recorded in this Department amounted to 7,145 bales against 4,658 bales of last year. The increase in outturn is due to favourable weather. The outturn of late cotton has been returned at 7,470 bales against 9,352 bales, which was the estimate for last year. Adding to these estimates 5 per cent. for the crop grown in the Native States, for which no statistics are recorded, the total early and late crop of this year works up to 7,502 and 7,844 bales respectively.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 20th December 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

[On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under autumn rice in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 5·7 per cent. of the total area under this crop in British India.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the preliminary forecast, issued in September last, the weather was favourable during the sowing season and weather conditions continued generally favourable throughout the season. But excessive rain in June, defective rainfall in July and heavy floods in the end of August damaged the crops in parts of Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, Shahabad, Saran, Champaran, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Darjeeling and Cuttack. Injury was also done by insects in Sambalpur. In Orissa and Chota Nagpur good crops have been harvested. In other districts excepting Howrah, the outturn was fair.

Area sown.—The area sown with the different bhadoi crops was 9,596,000 acres against 9,031,200 acres of last year. The normal areas under the crops have been returned at 9,548,700 acres. The increase in the area sown this year was due to the favourable weather conditions at the sowing time and also to the decrease in area under jute.

Outturn.—From Appendix I, it will be seen that Ranchi estimates a crop of 110 per cent. and Khulna, the Sonthal Parganas, Balasore, Hazaribagh, and Manbhum except an average crop. Eight districts report a crop between 90 and 99 per cent., five districts between 80 and 89 per cent., nine districts between 70 and 79 per cent., and four districts between 60 and 69 per cent. Howrah only reports a poor crop of 55 per cent.

Comparing the reports issued in the preliminary forecast with those now received, it appears that the outturn has improved in 10 and has decreased in 10 districts.

The estimates of the district officers returned to this Department show that the total outturn of all bhadoi crops in the Province has now worked out to 86 per cent. against 85 per cent. shown in the preliminary forecast. Last year's outturn of all the bhadoi crops was 65 per cent. The weather has been favourable in many districts and this Department estimates that a normal crop will be harvested.

The total yield of cleaned autumn rice according to this Department's estimates amounts to 34,795,100 cwts. against 21,923,100 cwts., which was the estimate last year.

* The report is for the week ending the 11th December 1909.

GENERAL SUMMARY.—There was moderate rainfall in Ranchi and light rainfall in parts of Burdwan, Champaran, Darbhanga, Monghyr, Angul, Sambalpur, Hazaribagh, Palamau and Manbhum and no rain in the rest of the Provinces. The recent rain has benefited the rabi crops in Champaran and Ranchi and more rain is wanted in Patna, Saran and Hazaribagh. Harvesting of winter rice continues. Sugarcane is in progress in Bihar and Orissa. Rabi crops are doing well Some damage has been done by insects to the wheat crop in parts of Murshidabad. The price of common rice has fallen in most districts of Bihar and also in Puri, Sambalpur, Palamau and Cooch Behar and has risen in Nadia and Hazaribagh. Cattle-disease is reported from Midnapore, Nadia, Patna, Gaya, Champaran, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Purnea, the Sonthal Parganas, Cuttack, Angul, Sambalpur, Hazaribagh and Palamau. The fodder and water supply is sufficient throughout the Province.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL AND IN EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 1909.

On the first of the month general rain was reported from Bihar, but generally during the first week rainfall was confined to Eastern Bengal and Assam. Skies were moderately to heavily clouded except towards the close of the week, when they cleared almost completely in the western districts. Temperature was normal or in defect. During the second week only a few scattered falls of rain occurred. Skies were clear over a large part of the Division and lightly to moderately clouded elsewhere. Temperature agreed with the normal. During the third week heavy rain fell in Eastern Bengal and Assam under the influence of a cyclone from the Bay, but practically no rain fell in Orissa, Chota Nagpur and Bihar. Skies were clear or only lightly clouded before and after the storm. Temperature fell considerably over the area affected by the storm. During the fourth week a few falls occurred in the coast districts. Cloud spread over the greater part of the Division on account of a second cyclone in the Bay from the 25th to the 27th, and during this period owing to diminution in radiation night temperature became in excess.

In the Bay the important feature of the weather was the occurrence of two severe cyclones. The first entered the Andaman Sea on the 14th from the Gulf of Siam, probably crossing the Tenasserim peninsula to the south of Mergui. It moved rapidly in a north-westerly direction afterwards curving through north and north-east, crossed the Bengal coast to the east of Saugor Island and finally broke up in Eastern Bengal on the 19th. It did considerable damage to the river shipping at Goalundo and to country boats on the rivers in Eastern Bengal. The second storm was generated over the Andaman Sea on the 22nd and passed between Slipper Island and Diamond Island, moving probably initially in a north-westerly direction. It gradually, however, changed its course to west, and finally crossed the coast between Puri and Gopalpur during the night of the 26th. It caused much damage during its passage inland.

Summary of temperature.—The mean temperature for the month was approximately normal over the whole reporting area. The highest temperature (94°) was reported from Buxar and the lowest (54°·5) was reported from Daltonganj.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Provinces of Eastern Bengal and Assam and of Bengal for the month of October 1909:—

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

☁, dew.

Regulations for the Appointment of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, 1910.

No. 4174For.—The 27th December 1909.—The following orders of the Government of India regarding the appointment of probationers for the Indian Forest Service are published for general information.

Circular No. $\frac{37}{118-3}$ F., dated Calcutta, the 14th December 1909.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture.

THE REGULATIONS AS TO THE APPOINTMENT OF PROBATIONERS FOR THE INDIAN FOREST SERVICE, 1910.

1. Appointments.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will, in the summer of 1910, make not less than ten appointments of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, provided that so many candidates are considered to be in all respects qualified.

In making these appointments, he will act with the advice of a Selection Committee.

2. Applications for Appointment.—Applications for appointment must be made on a printed form to be obtained from the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, Whitehall, London, S. W., and to be returned to him not later than Friday, the 1st July 1910. Candidates must be prepared to present themselves for an interview with the Selection Committee within three weeks from that date.

3. Age Limit.—Candidates must be under the age of 23 years on the 1st July 1910.

4. Nationality, etc.—Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject. He must be unmarried, and if he marries before he reaches India he will forfeit his appointment. He must be of good physique, and must produce evidence of character to satisfy the Secretary of State for India in Council that he is suited for the Indian Forest Service.

5. Qualifications.—Preference will be given to candidates who can show that in addition to a good general education as described in the next paragraph they have passed with honours in a public examination for a degree in some branch of Natural Science held by a University in Great Britain or Ireland.

6. In case the number of duly qualified candidates who have taken such a degree, is not sufficient to fill the number of appointments, the Secretary of State for India in Council will nominate candidates who bring evidence to show that they have received a good general education, and that they have a good knowledge of Chemistry and Mechanics and Physics as indicated in the appended Syllabus (Appendix I). A good general education should be understood to include, at the least, a fair knowledge of English Composition, Mathematics up to and including Plane Trigonometry, Latin and either German or French. A knowledge of Greek is not necessary, but is left to the option of the candidates. The production of school certificates granted by the examining authorities of Universities, or of certificates that a candidate has passed the Matriculation Examination of a University, in the subjects named, or of other certificates held by the Secretary of State in Council to be equivalent, will be taken to show that a candidate satisfies the requirements of this clause Candidates of this class must not be less than 19 years of age on the 1st of July 1910.

Should there be more candidates considered by the Selection Committee to be qualified in every respect than vacancies to be filled, the Secretary of State reserves the right to require them to pass a competitive examination conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners, on the results of which their final selection would depend.

7. Medical Examination.—Those candidates who are selected as Probationers will be required to undergo a strict examination by a Medical Board at the India Office, at which particular stress will be laid on good vision and hearing.

On passing this medical examination candidates will be deemed to be Probationers for the Indian Forest Service.

8. Period of Probation.—In the case of probationers who have passed with Honours in Natural Science, as indicated in paragraph 5, the period of probation will extend over two years. In the case of students who have obtained a Diploma in Forestry the period may be two years or less, as may be specially arranged. The probationers will be required to undergo a special course of study at Oxford, and to become members of the University, if not so already. During the vacations they will receive, under suitable supervision, practical instruction in such British and Continental forests as may be selected for the purpose. Excursions are also made for purposes of study in term-time.

In the case of probationers who have not passed with Honours in Natural Science, the period of probation will extend over about three years.

Probationers must obtain the Diploma of Forestry of the University of Oxford; those who have passed with Honours in Natural Science within two years, and the others within three years. The case of students who have already obtained at another University such a Diploma will be specially considered.

9. Charges.—The probationers will be required to defray all expenses of lodging, board, tuition, and excursions while at Oxford, and on practical instruction in Britain and on the Continent, with the exception of fees payable to local forest officers in Britain and on the Continent.

10. Allowances.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will pay to each probationer possessing a degree in Natural Science, or a Diploma in Forestry, the sum of 120*l.* annually or a total of 240*l.* (besides the fees to local officers mentioned above). These payments will be made on the following dates in each year:—

On the 1st December	30
On the 1st March	30
On the 1st June	60

In the case of probationers who have not passed with Honours in Natural Science or obtained a Diploma in Forestry before being appointed probationers, the Secretary of State in Council will give the same total allowance of 240*l.* (in such instalments as may be required to meet the expenses of the practical work), and will defray (as above) the fees payable to local forest officers.

The grant of the allowances is subject to the following conditions:—

(a) that the progress of the probationer in his studies is satisfactory;

(b) that the probationer gives security to refund the payments in case he fails to join the Indian Forest Service at the end of the period of probation.

11. Conduct.—Every probationer will be required to conduct himself during the period of probation in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of State, and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in his studies in such a manner as may be required, failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he will be liable to have his name removed from the list of probationers.

12. Appointment and Seniority.—Probationers who obtain the Diploma of Forestry, and are of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Indian Forest Service, will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the Indian Forest Department. Their position in the Provincial Forest Lists will be determined by the results of the examinations held during their probation; but in making selections for the posts of Conservator, officers of the same year are reckoned as equal in seniority.

They will be allowed at the end of the period of probation to state their preference in respect to the provinces to which they desire to be allotted; but the distribution will be made to the several provinces according to the needs of the public service, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India. Officers are, however, at all times liable to be transferred from one province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

13. Riding.—Every probationer, before proceeding to India, will be required to satisfy the Secretary of State, in such manner as may be determined, of his ability to ride.

14. Articles of Agreement.—Within a month of his nomination as Assistant Conservator, each nominee must sign articles of agreement describing the terms and conditions of his appointment; he must embark for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State, and must engage his own passage. Failure to embark at the stated time will, in absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfeiture of appointment.

15. Salary.—An Assistant Conservator of Forests will draw pay at the rate of Rs. 380 a month (equivalent to 304*l.* a year, when the rupee is at 1*s.* 4*d.*) from the date of his reporting his arrival in India.

16. Promotion, Leave, Pension and Provident Fund.—Promotion, leave and pension will be governed by the regulations laid down by the Government of India, and applicable to forest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterations which may be made in them from time to time by the Government of India, and their interpretation in case of any doubt arising being left to that Government. A copy of the existing regulation can be seen on application at the India Office.

Certain information regarding appointments in the upper controlling staff of the Indian Forest Servie, the pay of which has been recently improved, will be found in Appendix II; a summary of information regarding leave is contained in Appendix III; and regarding pensions and the Provident Fund in Appendix IV.

INDIA OFFICE,
5th October 1909.

APPENDIX I (referred to in paragraph 6).

SYLLABUS OF SPECIAL SUBJECTS FOR CANDIDATES WHO HAVE NOT PASSED WITH HONOURS IN A PUBLIC EXAMINATION IN NATURAL SCIENCE.

I.—CHEMISTRY.

The simpler chemical and physical properties of common substances, such as lime, salt, sugar, water, air.

The preparation (excluding details of technical processes) and properties of the following substances:—

The metals, tin, lead, iron, copper, zinc, magnesium, calcium, potassium, sodium; their simpler and more important compounds, especially such as occur naturally, and such compounds and alloys as are used in the Arts.

Hydrogen, oxygen, water, ozone, hydrogen-peroxide.

Nitrogen, ammonia, ammonium salts, nitrous oxide, nitric oxide, nitrogen peroxide, nitrates.

Carbon, carbon dioxide, carbonates, carbon monoxide.

Chlorine, bromine, iodine, chlorides, bromides, iodides, chlorates, hypochlorites.

Sulphur, sulphuretted hydrogen, sulphides, sulphur dioxide, sulphur trioxide, sulphites, sulphates.

Phosphorus, phosphoretted hydrogen, phosphorus trioxide, phosphorus pentoxide, orthophosphates, phosphorus trichloride, phosphorus pentachloride.

Silica.

The principles of chemical change; oxidation and reduction; combustion; flame. Allotropy. Methods of purifying bodies. Methods of determining the composition of air and of water. Laws of chemical combination. Diffusion of gases. The atomic and molecular hypotheses. The simpler methods of determining equivalents. General considerations used in determining molecular weights and atomic weights. Chemical notation.

Alcohol, ethane, and the simpler ethylic compounds, considered in detail as typical bodies. Methylic alcohol and methane, and benzylic alcohol and toluene, considered briefly as analogues of alcohol and ethane. Characters of primary normal alcohols in general, and of their corresponding hydrocarbons.

Acetic acid, aldehyd and the simpler acetic compounds, considered in detail as typical bodies. Benzoic acid and benz-aldehyd, and formic acid and form-aldehyd, considered briefly as analogues of acetic acid and aldehyd. Characters of normal mon-acids in general and of their corresponding aldehyds.

Oxalic acid and the simpler oxalic compounds. Characters of normal di-acids in general.

Processes (i) for the detection of carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen, sulphur in organic compounds; (ii) for the estimation of carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen in organic compounds; (iii) for the production and analysis of the silver-salts of organic acids and the platinum-salts of organic basis; (iv) for the determination of vapour densities by the V. Meyer method.

The determination of the formula of an organic compound.

PRACTICAL WORK.

The Practical Work should include:—

Simple experiments and preparations illustrating the properties of the inorganic substances named above.

Simple quantitative experiments, such as the determination of the loss of weight on heating a body, the determination of the volume of gas evolved on the solution of zinc in acid. The volumetric estimation of acids and alkalies.

The qualitative analysis of simple salts containing not more than one of the following metals, and one of the following acid radicals:—Sodium, potassium, ammonium, calcium, magnesium, zinc, copper, iron, lead, tin, oxide, carbonate, chloride, sulphate, nitrate, sulphide.

II.—MECHANICS AND PHYSICS.

Mechanics.

The principles of the lever, the inclined plane, the composition of forces and virtual work, their experimental investigation and application to machines and other simple cases of equilibrium. Centre of gravity, couple, torque, velocity ratio, mechanical advantage, efficiency. Application to liquids and gases. Density. Boyle's law. Pump, siphon, barometer, manometer. Body moving in a straight line so that its velocity changes proportionally with the time. Body moving uniformly in a circle. Motion of pendulum-bob. Momentum, force, impulse of a force, energy, conservation of energy.

Heat.

Simple thermometry. Simple methods of determining latent heat; specific heats; expansion of gases, liquids and solids; vapour pressures. Change of state. Simple experiments on conduction, convection and radiation. Mechanical equivalent of heat.

Sound.

Direct determination of the velocity of sound in air and in water; the effect of change of temperature on the velocity of sound in air; mode of propagation of sound in air. Simple methods of determining the pitch of a note. Characteristics of musical sounds.

Light.

Laws of reflection and refraction. Simple methods of determining refractive indices, and the focal lengths of mirrors and lenses. The simplest form of the compound microscope and of the astronomical telescope. Dispersion, the spectroscope, spectra of different kinds. Simple photometry. Elementary notions of the determination of the velocity of light.

Electricity and Magnetism.

Properties of electrified bodies. Methods of electrification. Electric induction. The gold leaf electroscope. Elementary quantitative notions of electrical quantity, capacity, potential and specific inductive capacity. Condensers. Properties of magnets. Methods of magnetization. Magnetic induction. Simple methods of determining the declination and dip at a place and of comparing magnetic fields and moments. The construction of the batteries of Volta, Daniell and Leclanché, and their theory. The secondary battery. The physical and chemical action due to a current. Simple galvanometers, ammeters, and voltmeters. Measurement of current strength, electromotive force and resistance. The production of currents by electromagnetic induction. The broad principles of the induction-coil and dynamo.

PRACTICAL WORK.

Simple experiments illustrating the principles stated above.

APPENDIX II.

LIST OF APPOINTMENTS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE IMPERIAL BRANCH OF THE INDIAN FOREST SERVICE.

NOTE.—This list is liable to alteration at any time.

	Appointment.	Salary.
		Rs.
1	Inspector-General of Forests	2,650 a month.
*1	Assistant Inspector-General of Forests ...	„
2	Chief Conservators (Burma and Central Provinces).	2,150 „
19	Conservators, in three grades ...	1,900 „ 1,700 „ 1,500 „ respectively.
177	Deputy and Assistant Conservators ...	† Rs. 380 a month, rising by annual increments of Rs. 40 a month to Rs. 700 a month; thereafter, by annual increments of Rs. 50 a month to Rs. 1,250 a month, in the twentieth year of service.
5	Foreign Service appointments (four temporary).
‡ 6	Officers employed at the Forest Research Institute and College, Dehra Dun.

The sanctioned appointments in the Imperial Forest Service are allotted to the various provinces as follows:—Burma, 66; Madras, 34; Bombay, 27; Central Provinces, 24; Bengal, 11; United Provinces, 19; Punjab, 12; and Eastern Bengal and Assam, 18.

* The officer holding this appointment draws in addition to the pay of his grade a minimum local allowance of Rs. 200 a month.

† Until he has passed the prescribed Departmental examinations, an Assistant Conservator may not draw pay at a higher rate than Rs. 460 a month. On passing the examinations he will resume drawing pay under the time scale at the rate to which his length of service entitles him.

‡ These draw a local allowance of Rs. 150 a month in addition to their grade pay, with the exception of the Principal of the College, in whose case the allowance is at the rate of Rs. 200 a month.

NOTE.—Under the improved scale of salary shown above, no Exchange Compensation Allowance is granted.

APPENDIX III.

(See paragraph 16 of the Regulations.)

LEAVE.

1. The following is a summary of the principal regulations relating to the leave admissible to officers appointed to the Indian Forest Service by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom:—

Long Leave.

2. Furlough and special leave with allowances (see paragraph 6) are admissible to an aggregate maximum amount of six years during an officer's service. The amount of furlough "earned" is one-fourth of an officer's active service, and the amount "due" is that amount less any enjoyed.

3. Furlough without medical certificate can, if due, be generally taken after eight years' active service, and again after intervals of not less than three years' continuous service. It is limited to two years at a time.

4. Furlough on medical certificate may be granted (a) to an officer who has rendered three years' continuous service, for not more than two years, but capable of extension up to three years; and (b) to an officer who has not rendered three years' continuous service, up to one year in any case, and up to such longer period, if any (but not exceeding two years in all), as the officer may have furlough "due" to him.

5. The allowances admissible during furlough are:—

(1) During the first two years of furlough without medical certificate and during so much of furlough with medical certificate as may be "due"—half average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.

(2) After the expiration of the period for which the foregoing allowances are admissible one quarter of average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.

Short leave.

6. Special leave may be granted at any time for not more than six months, with intervals of six years' service; allowances, calculated as during furlough, are given during the first six months only, whether taken in one or more instalments.

7. Privilege leave is a holiday which may be granted to the extent of one-eleventh part of the time that an officer has been on duty without interruption; and it may be accumulated up to three months, earned by 33 months' duty. During privilege leave, the officer retains a lien on his appointment, and receives the salary which he would have received if on duty. An interval of not less than six months must elapse between two periods of absence on privilege leave.

Privilege leave may be prefixed to furlough, special leave, or extraordinary leave without allowances. The whole period of leave thus taken in combination is known as combined leave. Combined leave may not be granted for a period of less duration than six months, nor, except on medical certificate, may it be extended beyond two years.

8. Subsidiary leave in India for a minimum of 10 days, usually with half average salary, is granted to an officer proceeding on or returning from leave out of India, or on retirement, to enable him to reach the port of embarkation or to rejoin his appointment. It is admissible only at the end and not at the beginning of combined leave.

9. Short leave is also granted to enable officers to appear at examinations, etc.

10. Extraordinary leave without allowances may be granted in case of necessity, and, except in certain specified cases, only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible. It may be granted in continuation of other leave.

General Rules.

11. Leave of absence, whether on furlough or on privilege leave, can never be claimed as of right, and is given or refused at the discretion of Government.

12. After five years' continuous absence from duty, an officer is considered to be out of the employment of Government.

13. When leave allowances other than privilege leave pay are paid at the Home Treasury, or in a Colony where the standard of currency is gold, rupees are converted into sterling at the rate of exchange fixed for the time being for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Treasuries, unless any other rate has been exceptionally authorized. But for the present the rate of conversion is subject to a minimum of 1*s.* 6*d.* to the rupee. Privilege leave pay when issued from the Home Treasury (this is only admissible when privilege leave is combined with other leave) is converted at 1*s.* 4*d.* to the rupee.

APPENDIX IV.

PENSIONS AND PROVIDENT FUND.

1. The following is a summary of the principal pension rules applicable to officers of the Indian Forest Service appointed by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom.

An officer of the Indian Forest Service is eligible for a pension on voluntary retirement after completing 20 years' qualifying service or attaining the age of 55 years. If at an earlier date he is compelled to retire from the service through ill-health, not occasioned by irregular or intemperate habits, he becomes eligible for an invalid pension or a gratuity according to the length of his service.

The amount of pension or gratuity is regulated as follows :—

After a service of less than 10 years, an invalid gratuity not exceeding one month's emoluments for each completed year of service.

Years of Completed Service.	Maximum Limit of Pension.
	Rs.	Rs.
10	1,000 a year or	83⅓ a month.
11	1,400 „ „	116⅔ „
12	1,800 „ „	150 „
13	2,200 „ „	183⅓ „
14	2,600 „ „	216⅔ „
15, 16, 17, 18, 19	3,000 „ „	250 „

After a service of not less than 20 years, a retiring pension not exceeding the following amounts :—

Years of Completed Service.	Scale of Pension. Sixtieths of Average Emoluments.	Maximum Limit of Pension.
		Rs.	Rs.
20 to 24	30	4,000 a year or	333⅓ a month.
25 and above		5,000 „ „	416⅔ „

Officers who have shown special energy and efficiency during an effective service of three years as Inspector-General of Forests or Conservator may, at the discretion of the Government of India, be allowed an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year, subject to the condition that the officer must not retire voluntarily before the completion of a total qualifying service of 28 years.

Subject to certain prescribed conditions, rupee pensions are now issued to pensioners residing in countries where the Indian rupee is not legal tender at the rate of exchange of 1*s.* 9*d.* the rupee.

2. A General Provident Fund has also been established on the following basis :—

(a) The contribution is compulsory up to 6¼ per cent. on salaries, with voluntary contributions of not more than a further 6¼ per cent. Subscriptions on leave of any kind are optional.

(b) Compound interest on such payments is annually credited by Government to each officer subscribing, the rate being at present 4 per cent. per annum.

(c) The sum which will thus accumulate to the credit of an officer to be his absolute property, to be handed over to him unconditionally on quitting the service; or, in the event of his death before retirement, to his legal representatives.

For Office use only.

No. 4161L.R.—The 23rd December 1909.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 101 (1) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (Act VIII of 1885), and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal is pleased to direct that a survey shall be made and a record-of-rights prepared in respect of the lands situated in the undermentioned villages of thanas Rampurhat, Mayureshwar, Nalhati and Murarol in the district of Birbhum.

Birbhum.

The particulars to be recorded in the survey and record-of-rights shall be the following:—

(a) the name of each tenant or occupant;

(b) the class to which each tenant belongs, that is to say, whether he is a tenure-holder, raiyat holding at fixed rates, settled raiyat, occupancy raiyat, non-occupancy raiyat or under-raiyat, and, if he is a tenure-holder, whether he is a permanent tenure-holder or not, and whether his rent is liable to enhancement during the continuance of his tenure;

(c) the situation and quantity and one or more of the boundaries of the land held by each tenant or occupier;

(d) the name of each tenant's landlord;

(e) the rent payable at the time the record-of-rights is being prepared;

(f) the mode in which that rent has been fixed, whether by contract, by order of a Court, or otherwise;

(g) if the rent is a gradually increasing rent, the time at which, and the steps by which, it increases;

(h) the rights and obligations of each tenant and landlord in respect of—

(i) the use by tenants of water for agricultural purposes, whether obtained from a river, jhil, tank or well or any other source of supply, and

(ii) the repair and maintenance of appliances for securing a supply of water for the cultivation of the land held by each tenant whether or not such appliances be situated within the boundaries of such land;

(i) the special conditions and incidents, if any, of the tenancy;

(j) any right of way or other easement attaching to the land for which a record-of-rights is being prepared;

(k) if the land is claimed to be held rent-free, whether or not rent is actually paid, and, if not paid, whether or not the occupant is entitled to hold the land without payment of rent, and, if so entitled, under what authority;

(l) the name of each proprietor, with the character and extent of his interest, and the situation and quantity and one or more of the boundaries of each proprietor's private land as defined in Chapter XI of the Act.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1. The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2. The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3. The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and soon until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4. Each lot shall contain five chests.

5. A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the after-noon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8. No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the 5th day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9. The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

11. No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12. The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;
No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

By order of the Board of Revenue, L. P.,
SRIGOPAL BHATTACHARJEE,
Secretary.

EXAMINATIONS.

Calcutta, the 23rd December 1909.

No. 551—The following amendment to the rules for the encouragement of the study of Oriental languages among the junior members of the Indian Civil Service, contained in the Home Department Notification No. 632, dated the 20th December 1907, is published for general information—

To rule VIII add the following paragraph:—

"In addition to the quarterly examinations mentioned above, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, Calcutta, will conduct examinations in the high proficiency standard in Urdu and the higher standard in Persian twice annually at Lucknow and Lahore in March and October, concurrently with the proficiency examination in Urdu, which is held at those places under the arrangement sanctioned in the Home Department Notification No. 304, dated the 13th August 1908. The exact dates of the examinations and the places at which they will be held will be notified to intending candidates on application to the Board of Examiners."

CALCUTTA,
The 10th December 1909.

RULES FOR THE AWARD OF ORISSA LAW SCHOLARSHIPS.

(Approved under Government order No. 4060, dated 15th November 1909.)

1. Government will award annually six Law Scholarships to students from Orissa. The Scholarships shall be of the value of Rs. 30 a month each, and shall be tenable for two years either at the University Law College, Calcutta, or the Government Law College at Bankipore. The Scholarships shall be open to competition only amongst students who have graduated from Ravenshaw College, Cuttack.

2. Of the six scholarships four shall, subject to the condition in rule 3, be reserved for Uriyas, and two shall be awarded in open competition amongst Uriyas and domiciled non-Uriyas, these scholarships being awarded to the two students who stand at the top of the list.

3. It shall be open to the Director of Public Instruction in his discretion to award one of the four reserved scholarships to an Uriya Muhammadan in the event of a deserving candidate coming forward, and not gaining one of the two open scholarships.

4. The B. A. Examination shall be the basis of award, and candidates shall be ranked according to the percentage of marks gained at the B. A. Examination, subject to the conditions mentioned below.

5. Candidates who pass the B. A. Examination at the first attempt shall be given preference over those who pass at the second attempt, and those who pass at the second attempt, over those who pass at the third.

6. Candidates who pass the B. A. Examination within two years after passing the F. A. Examination shall rank above those who take more than two years.

7. Applications for these scholarships shall be submitted to the Principal, Ravenshaw College, before the College closes for the summer vacation. They must include particulars under the following heads:—

1. Name, address and residence of applicant.
2. Caste or creed.
3. Year of passing the F. A. Examination.
4. Year of passing the B. A. Examination.
5. In the case of domiciled non-Uriyas, the period of domicile in Orissa.

8. The Principal shall forward the list with his recommendations without delay, in order to permit of the award being made immediately after the results of the B. A. Examination are published.

9. A scholarship may be refused to a candidate, otherwise eligible, in the event of his behaviour as a student or after leaving college not having been such as to commend him to the favour of Government.

10. The award of the Director of Public Instruction shall be final.

JOHN RICHARD CUNNINGHAM,
Assistant Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Government of Bengal has sanctioned the institution of six special scholarships, as noted below, for the benefit of Uriya students who join the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur. The amount of the scholarships is fixed so as to cover the cost of board and tuition at the College—

(1) Two special Sub-Overseer scholarships of Rs. 15 each a month, tenable for two years in the junior section of the Apprentice Department.

(2) Two special Overseer scholarships of Rs. 15 each a month, tenable for two years in the senior section of the Apprentice Department.

(3) One special Overseer (Practical Training) scholarship of Rs. 10 a month, tenable for 18 months during the period of practical training in the Apprentice Department.

(4) One special Engineering scholarship of Rs. 20 a month, tenable for four years in the Engineer Department.

2. The Overseer (Practical Training) scholarship will be awarded for the first time on the results of the Overseer examination of 1912. The other scholarships will be awarded from the year 1910-11.

The continuance of the special Sub-Overseer scholarships will be liable to reconsideration when the status of the Cuttack Survey School is raised.

3 Uriya students will be eligible for the scholarships in question whether their religion be Hindu, Muhammadan, Christian or other, the sole test of eligibility in this regard being that of race.

In the absence of eligible Uriya candidates, the scholarships will not be awarded.

4. Candidates for these scholarships must possess the educational qualifications for admission laid down for regular students of the Department. A concession of two years in the maximum limit of age is allowed to them.

5. Students securing these scholarships will not receive reduction or remission of the ordinary college fees.

6. Applications for these scholarships should be accompanied by—

(1) a certificate of moral character from the head of the institution at which the candidate last studied, and

(2) certificates as to the respectability of his family and of his eligibility under the rules for the scholarship applied for.

7. Applications for the scholarship tenable in the Engineer Department should be sent together with the formal applications for admission to the Engineer Department, and the usual registration fee of Rs. 4 (which shall in no case be refunded), so as to arrive at the office of the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, not later than the 15th of June in each year.

Applications for the special (1) Sub-Overseer, (2) Overseer and (3) the Practical Training (Overseer) scholarships should be sent together with the applications for admission to (1) the first year class, (2) the Sub-Overseer examination and (3) the Overseer examination respectively. Such applications should reach the office of the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, not later than the date which may be fixed in any year as the last date on which applications for admission to the class or examination in question will be accepted.

8. For information not contained in the above rules, applications should be made to the Principal, Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.

DRAFT NOTIFICATION.

REFERENCE is invited to Government Resolution No. 1028T.G., dated 10th June 1907, with which the revised syllabuses for Standards I and II in boys' and girls' schools were published for general information.

2. In paragraph 7 of the Resolution it was clearly set down that the supplementary courses of study prescribed for boys' schools should be compulsory in all girls' schools.

3. Inasmuch, however, as the supplementary course in Arithmetic for Standard II has by oversight been omitted from the curriculum for Standard II in girls' schools, it is hereby announced that the supplementary course in Arithmetic for Standard II in boys' schools should be understood to form part of the obligatory course in all girls' schools.

Advertisement of sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estates situate in the district of Murshidabad will be put up to sale at the Jangipur subdivisional office on Saturday, the 15th January 1910, corresponding with the 2nd Magh 1316 B.S.

The purchasers will be subject to the following conditions of sale :—

Conditions of Sale.

1st.—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of this estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2nd.—The sale to be subject to existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and by the laws in force; and purchasers to be bound to respect the rights of resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, whole amount to be paid down at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, one-fourth of the amount bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by noon of the fifteenth day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by noon of the first succeeding office day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be again put up to sale at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, after issue of advertisement, as in the case of original sale.

5th.—Land revenue demand of the mahals will be fixed at 75 per cent. of the existing gross rental.

Berhampore, the 25th November 1909. A. G. HALLIFAX, Collector.

Advertisement for Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given that the proprietary right of Government, as specified in the conditions of sale below, to the undermentioned estates, situate in the district of Hooghly, will be put up to sale at the Collectorate on the 4th January 1910, corresponding to 20th Pous 1316 B.S.

The purchaser will be subject to the following conditions of sale:—

Conditions of sale.

1st.—The estate to be sold to the highest bidder above the upset price, which will be fixed by the Collector at the time of sale. The purchaser of the estate will be considered as the proprietor of the estate, and the entire proprietary right of Government in such estate will be transferred to him, subject to the revenue fixed in perpetuity.

2nd.—The sale is to be subject to the existing leases and to the rights conferred by the settlement proceedings, and to the laws in force; and purchaser to be bound to respect the rights of the resident cultivators who have signed the schedule of assessment prepared by the Revenue authorities.

3rd.—If the amount of the purchase-money do not exceed Rs. 100, the whole amount to be paid at once.

4th.—If the amount of purchase-money exceed Rs. 100, the one-fourth of the amount of bid to be immediately deposited. If the balance be not paid by the noon of the 15th day after the sale, reckoning the day of sale as one, or if that day be a close holiday, then by the noon of the succeeding day, the sale is to be cancelled (the sum deposited being forfeited to Government), and the estate to be put up to sale again at the risk of the defaulting purchaser after issue of advertisement as in the case of original sale.

List of Petty Government Estate of the Arambagh Subdivision to be sold on the 4th January 1910 corresponding to 20th Pous 1316 B.S.

CUSTOM HOUSE NOTICE.

Credit system for the payment of Salt duty.

UNDER this system, as explained in the rules appended hereto, the payment of duty on salt manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal may be postponed for any period not exceeding six months from the date on which such payment is due.

2 The advantage to the merchant is that in taking delivery of a consignment of salt from boardship or from bond, it will be open to him, instead of prepaying the amount of the duty into the Treasury, to execute a bond and to deposit Government Promissory Notes or the other securities specified in the rules of a sufficient value to secure the payment He will have the advantage of drawing interest on the securities throughout the period for which they are deposited. At present he loses interest on the amount of the duty from the date of payment till the date of the sale of the salt. If any further particulars are required, the Accountant at the Custom House will furnish them on application.

CALCUTTA CUSTOM HOUSE, H. F. HOWARD,

The 11th December 1909. Offg. Collector of Customs

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3383.R.—The 2nd April 1909.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Indian Salt Duties Act, 1903 (X of 1903), the Lieutenant Governor is pleased to make the following rules providing for the payment of duty on salt (manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal) within a period not exceeding six months from the date on which payment is due, and for the furnishing of security for such payment:—

Rules.

1. The payment of duty on salt manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal may, subject to the following rules, be postponed for any period not exceeding six months from the date on which such payment is due.

2. Any person who desires such postponement must deposit adequate security for such payment, and must execute an agreement in the form appended to these rules.

3. Such security shall take the form of—

(a) Government promissory notes,
(b) Treasury loan acknowledgments,
(c) Treasury Bills,
(d) Calcutta Port Trust Bonds,
(e) Calcutta Municipal Bonds,
(f) Government Savings Bank Pass-books, or (g) Post Office Savings Bank deposits of the kind referred to in clause 42 in rule 338 of the rules contained in the Indian Postal Guide of April 1908, which must be endorsed over to and deposited with the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, or a District Collector empowered by the Board of Revenue in this behalf,

4. (1) Whenever securities are so deposited, the Collector shall grant to the depositor a receipt therefor, showing the amount of duty and charges for which the depositor will receive credit in respect of such securities

(2) The said amount shall be fixed according to the probable marketable value of the securities, after making such deduction as the Collector may think fit to meet the contingency of depreciation in such value during the currency of the credit.

5. The Collector shall open a credit account for the amount shown in the aforesaid receipt: provided that no account shall be opened for a less sum than Rs. 500.

6. (1) A depositor may have more than one credit account opened in his name at the same time, upon depositing separate securities and executing a separate agreement in respect of each account.

(2) Any deficit arising upon any such account may be realized from securities deposited on any other such account.

7. (1) Where a credit account is opened by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, applications by the depositor for the clearance of salt must be made upon a Bill-of-Entry bearing the words "Credit Account" in red ink on its face, and the depositor must in all other respects conform to the Customs procedure for the time being in force in Calcutta.

(2) Where a credit account is opened by a District Collector, applications by the depositor for the clearance of salt must be made in the prescribed form, and the Collector shall then pass the necessary orders for the issue of the salt.

8. (1) All payments due upon credit accounts opened in Calcutta must be made to the Collector of Customs, Calcutta:

Provided that the Collector may permit any such payment to be made at any Treasury outside Calcutta.

(2) All payments due upon credit accounts opened in any district outside Calcutta must be made to the Collector of that district.

9. Any interest accruing on securities during the time they remain in the custody of the Collector shall be paid to the depositor on presentation of interest warrants.

10. (1) Each current account shall be adjusted at the expiration of a period of six months from the date on which the account is opened.

(2) Whenever an adjustment is made, the Collector shall either—

(a) allow the account to be continued and the balance thereof carried over, after requiring additional security to be deposited if necessary, or

(b) if he thinks fit, direct the account to be closed.

11. (1) If any depositor fails to pay upon demand, the balance found to be due by him to the Government upon the final adjustment of his account, he may be charged with interest on such balance from the date on which the credit expired, at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum, and the Collector may proceed to realize the amount due for principal and interest by the sale of the depositor's securities or any of them.

(2) Any surplus accruing on such sale shall be paid to the depositor, and any loss consequent on the securities not realizing the sum due from the depositor for principal and interest must be met by him.

(3) For the purpose of making good any such loss, the Collector may credit to the Government any interest that may have accrued on any of the securities.

12. When an account opened in respect of any securities has been settled, such securities shall be returned to the depositor, upon his presenting the receipt which the Collector granted therefor.

13. (1) A depositor may have an account closed at any time before the expiration of the period of six months referred to in rule 10, upon paying amount shown to be due by him.

(2) When such payment is made the securities shall be returned to the depositor, upon his presenting the receipt which the Collector granted therefor.

FORM OF AGREEMENT.

An agreement made the day of one thousand nine hundred and between the Secretary of State for India in Council of the one part and of the other part The said having fully endorsed and deposited with the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, (or the Collector of) for the time being the securities hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, for securing the payment by him, the said , his executors, administrators or personal representatives, to the said Secretary of State, his successors or assigns, of all money which may at any time or times become due or owing from the said , his executors, administrators or personal representatives, to the Government of Bengal, on account of all duties, interest and other charges on salt removed from on credit under the rules regulating such credit (a copy whereof is hereunto annexed), or which shall at any time or times be at the debit of the said in his account or accounts current with the said Government in respect of such removals of salt on credit. It is hereby agreed between the said parties hereto, the said Secretary of State agreeing for himself, his successors and assignees, and the said for himself, his executors, administrators and personal representatives, that the said securities so deposited as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to all the provisions of the said rules and to such sale and appropriation of proceeds as therein provided and that any interest which shall accrue due on the said securities while they remain in deposit with the said Collector shall be paid to the depositors, when due, on presentation of interest warrants, subject to the power of the Collector to retain such interest to meet any sum that may be due by the depositor on his credit account; and lastly that each of the said parties hereto shall adhere to the said rules and shall be bound thereby and by every stipulation and provision therein contained. In witness whereof , Esquire, Collector of Customs, Calcutta, (or Collector of the district) has by order of the Government of Bengal set his hand and the seal of his office hereto for and on behalf of the said Secretary of State and the said has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS.

Published in FOUR SERIES, viz.

CALCUTTA, MADRAS, BOMBAY AND ALLAHABAD.

THE Indian Law Reports, published under the authority of the Governor General in Council, are printed in monthly parts, which are issued, as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

The Reports comprise four Series—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court.

The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the Series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt: and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

Persons desiring to subscribe for or purchase the Reports should apply to—the Officer in charge Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt, Calcutta, or

the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, or

the Superintendent, Government Central Press, Bombay, or

the Curator of Government Books, United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, Allahabad.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

(On an average of the five years ending 1907-1908 the area under indigo in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 37 per cent. of the total area under indigo in British India.)

Explanatory.—With the exception of a few acres, in Nadia and Jessore, indigo is only cultivated in Bihar districts, and of these Champaran, Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga are most important.

Character of the season.—The season has been unfavourable. Deficiency of winter rain affected February sowings very seriously. In March and April the season was better, but in May the rainfall was very defective. In June the rainfall was more than sufficient, and the heavy rainfall in the end of August affected the outturn of the second cuttings.

Area.—The area sown this year as compared with the two preceding years is given below :—

1909	..	...	...	107,400 acres.
1908	.	...	...	135,300 „
1907	...	...	...	146,800 „

Outturn.—As compared with the estimates furnished in the preliminary forecast, the estimates now furnished are less in all the important districts of North Bihar. Champaran now estimates a 60 per cent. crop, Muzaffarpur a 75 per cent. and Darbhanga a 57 per cent. crop; the estimated outturn for North Bihar, including Monghyr, amounts to 67 per cent. and for the minor districts 32 per cent. against 78 and 44 per cent. respectively shewn in the preliminary forecast. The decrease is attributed to the unfavourable outturn from the second cuttings. The total yield of the Province is estimated at 17,007 factory maunds against 26,331 maunds of last year.

Messrs. Moran & Co.'s estimates of the crop for the year under report is 16,000 maunds against 25,000 maunds of last year.

SECOND FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 21st December 1909.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

SECOND FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

[On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under winter rice in the territory to which the forecast relates has represented some 27·7 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in British India.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the first forecast issued in October last, the season was very favourable. In parts of Burdwan, Howrah, Jessore and in the Ghatal subdivision of Midnapore the crop suffered from heavy floods in August. The rain received in the early part of October proved very beneficial, especially in the Bhagalpur Division, where the fall was good. The severe cyclone of the 17th October which travelled across the eastern tract of this Province did some damage, the extent of which is reported to have varied from 6 to 12 per cent. Some injury was done in Saran, Champaran and Palamau, where the crops on high lands suffered for want of moisture. The recent rain received in Bengal Proper and Orissa early in this month was light, except in Puri, and no damage is apprehended. Prospects of the crop are good for the province.

Area sown.—The area sown during the year under report is now reported to be 21,235,100 acres against 17,909,500 acres reported last year. The normal area under the crop is estimated at 20,890,500 acres. The increase in the area sown has been mainly due to seasonable rainfall.

Outturn.—From the Appendix I it will be seen that the undermentioned districts expect a crop above the normal:—

Muzaffarpur	... ...	114 per cent.
Patna and Manbhum ..	... ...	110 „
Monghyr	... ...	108 „
The Santhal Parganas	... ...	106 „
Bhagalpur, Sambalpur and Ranchi	..	105 „

The 24-Parganas, Gaya and Balasore report an average crop. Eight districts report a crop between 90 to 99 per cent. and eight more between 80 to 89 per cent. Five districts return estimates between 70 to 79 per cent. Jessore only reports a low outturn of 68 per cent. of the normal. The Provincial outturn comes up to 94 per cent., against 96 per cent. shown in the Preliminary forecast, but with the favourable weather which has prevailed in most districts, it is estimated that the yield of the crop will be above the normal.

Offg. Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

		Sadar ...	775,700	547,600	141,300	83,300	124,500	12	73			161,285		The increase in the area sown this year as contrasted with that shown in the final forecast is due to [illegible] extension of cultivation in the Siwan subdivision. The decrease in the outturn is due to absence of rain at the time when the crops were about ripening. Harvesting has not yet commenced. The general condition of the crop is good. The decrease in the area sown as compared with the normal is due to want of funds and work, after successive years, of confidence in the prospects of the season.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON PUBLIC INSTRUCTION IN BENGAL FOR 1908-09.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EDUCATION.

Calcutta, the 28th December 1909.

RESOLUTION No. 4897.

READ—

The Report on Public Instruction in Bengal for 1908-09.

IN the year under review there has been a continuance of the educational activity which was primarily prompted by the Simla Conference of 1901, and a further marked increase in expenditure. The demands of the Department continue to grow, but increasing difficulty is felt on the part of the Government in meeting them. The total expenditure from all sources on institutions of all kinds has risen from 110¼ lakhs in 1905-06 to 144⅓ lakhs in 1908-09, and within the same period the expenditure from provincial revenues has risen from 34 lakhs to 49¾ lakhs, while within the last two years there has been an increase of 13 lakhs in expenditure from provincial revenues. Mr. James, who submitted the present report as Officiating Director, has emphasized the need for further provision of funds and for a clearly defined policy in the Department as to the proportion of total expenditure which the main heads of education should receive.

2. Controlling agencies.—The temporary appointment of a second Assistant Director to assist the Director of Public Instruction was made as the work of the head-quarters office continued to expand. It is stated that while there is less work in the preparing of new schemes, there is more work in carrying into operation the schemes already sanctioned. As regards the agency for the inspection of primary education, the department has hitherto devoted itself to increasing the number of sub-inspectors so that they may have units of reasonable size to control. In the Lieutenant-Governor's opinion a sufficient advance has been made under the head of inspection, and it is now necessary for the department to direct its efforts towards the improvement of the teaching staff.

3. Primary education for boys.—The number of boys under instruction was about twelve hundred thousand, representing 26·5 per cent. of the total male population of school-going age. The total number of primary schools for boys was 34,472, which is 518 more than in the previous year. Mr. James draws attention to the fact that the allowance of the Gurus in primary schools is inadequate; and that while the stipendiary system has brought the schools under better control, yet at the same time it has furnished an excuse for parents and guardians to diminish the payments from private sources which form a part of the traditional income of primary school teachers. In the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor the problem is a two-fold one:—the quality of the teachers must be improved, and at the same time it is necessary that the teachers in primary schools should receive a living wage. To achieve the first object the system of Guru Training Schools has been extended throughout the province. The advance must be slow as much leeway has to be made up. A contrast has been drawn in the report between the contributions of the Bombay and Calcutta Municipalities to primary schools. The Bombay Municipality spends one and one-third lakh and possesses 93 schools of its own, whereas the Calcutta Corporation has not a single school of its own and spends only one fifth of a lakh on primary education. It is satisfactory to notice that the Corporation has decided since the close of the year under review to appoint a sub-committee to meet the representatives of the Educational Department and to discuss the subject of the control of education.

4. Secondary education.—The proposals which were made by the Bengal Government for the improvement of secondary education and which involve a recurring expenditure of 16 lakhs, are still in abeyance; but Mr. James assures Government that something has been done to stimulate education in high schools through the inspection of these schools by officers of the Department on behalf of the University. During the year scholars in high schools have increased by over 2,000 and expenditure by Rs. 1,43,000; at the same time the number of high schools has decreased by two. This, in His Honour's opinion, gives evidence of more efficient working on the part of the existing schools.

His Honour has learnt with pleasure the good results which have been achieved by the experiment of appointing an officer of the Indian Educational Service as Head Master of the Ranchi Zilla School. The Lieutenant-Governor also agrees with the view expressed by Mr. James that an advanced high school is preferable to an inferior second grade college, but at the same time considers that the natural reluctance to lower the status of an existing college must be respected. His Honour is at one with the view expressed by Mr. James that while at first sight it might appear that the right policy for the Department is to sustain the more efficient type of schools and resist the blind and ignorant preference for anything that can be described as English education, yet it is not feasible to adopt such a policy with absolute strictness. It is to be deplored that there is a tendency to prefer a bad education in middle English schools to a good education in middle vernacular schools.

5. Collegiate education.—In collegiate education there has been a steady advance in all directions to conform with the regulations of the Calcutta University. There have been improvements in staff, buildings, science equipment, libraries and hostels. Among Government colleges, much has been done in the Presidency College for the more effective teaching of science subjects; but, as Mr. James remarks, it is obviously out of all reason that a college, even the Presidency College, should provide, without limit, an education costing far more than the fees received for it to every applicant without limit of cost or enquiry as to the applicant's fitness to profit by it. In the Patna College the chief progress made during the year was the establishment of a proper residential system. In the Krishnagar College the number of students has fallen to 86, and at present the report of a Committee which was appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in April 1909 to advise as to the future of the college is under the consideration of Government. Mr. James has given some interesting comparisons of the net annual cost to Government per student in Government colleges; it varies from Rs. 145 per student in the Presidency College to Rs. 830 per student in the Sanskrit College. The Lieutenant-Governor has perused with interest the views of the Officiating Director on the prospects of autonomous administration which are opened up by the constitution of governing bodies for colleges, and is in full agreement with the Director regarding the advisability of laying down for the different colleges working limits of expenditure.

6. Muhammadan education.—There has been an increase in the total number of Muhammadans under instruction of nearly 27,000 over the figures of the previous year. The number of pupils in secondary schools is nearly 17,000, but there are only 300 students in Arts Colleges. Much valuable work was done by Mr. Earle in initiating schemes for the improvement of Madrasas and the improvement of maktabs. During the year under review a scheme for the improvement of Madrasas was matured, and arrangements were made for a detailed inspection of all the private Madrasas in the Province, which has been completed since the close of the year. The scheme for the improvement of maktabs was completed; but it is only possible to bring it gradually into effect. There were 970 students at the Calcutta Madrasa at the end of 1908-09. The Elliott Madrasa Hostel is able to provide for 119 boarders. The Lieutenant-Governor has taken measures to provide another hostel to accommodate 100 students, and towards this the Nawab Bahadur of Dacca has given a liberal donation of Rs. 25,000.

7. Professional and Technical education.—The schemes for the University Law College in Calcutta, and the Patna Law College were brought into full working order after the end of the year. Pleadership classes have been revived at Hooghly, Krishnagar and Cuttack, and also in connection with the University Law College and the Government Law College at Patna.

In connection with the Engineering College at Sibpur, the Director presses strongly for the early removal of the college to a new site. There have been unforeseen difficulties in the way, but they are gradually being surmounted, and it is hoped that considerable progress may be effected within the next twelve months. It is satisfactory to note that, notwithstanding the abolition of the agricultural classes, there has been an increase in the number of students at the college. A Board of Visitors has been constituted during the year under review, and the Joint Technical Examination Board conducted the Overseer and Sub-Overseer Examinations for the two Provinces of Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam for the first time in March 1909. The sanction of the Secretary of State has been obtained to the appointment of a Professor of Industrial Chemistry. The course of instruction of students in mining districts has been successful and has served its purpose. Mr. James expresses a doubt as to whether the conditions admit of permanent usefulness. On the other hand the Mining Instructor urges the opening of classes for instruction at additional centres. In His Honour's opinion there is no ground for withdrawing these useful and popular classes, which have recently received the warm appreciation of the Indian Mining Association. The Bihar School of Engineering reports a successful year. Further opportunities for advance in the Public Works Department have been given to the students, and the results of the first examination held by the Joint Technical Board were favourable to the school. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that, although he is fully in favour of the conversion of the Cuttack Survey School into a similar School of Engineering for Orissa, it has not yet been found possible to finance the project.

Mr. Percy Brown, Superintendent of the School of Art, Lahore, was appointed Principal of the Calcutta School of Art in January 1909. Good work is being done in the advanced design class, and the importance of Indian ideals and designs is clearly kept in view. The Government Commercial classes in Calcutta have increased in stability. The successful candidates in the commercial course in special examinations have increased from 23 to 35. Another important departure was the opening of the Government Weaving Institute at Serampore in January 1909. The work is at present carried on in temporary buildings, and a site has been acquired for the permanent institute. In March 1909 there were 90 students, of whom 23 were boarders. This Institute is the outcome of the efforts of Mr. Havell, formerly of the School of Arts, Calcutta, and of others to revive the indigenous weaving industry by methods suited to the actual conditions of the hand-loom industry.

8. Female education.—Mr. James has asked for further assistance to the only Female Arts College in Bengal, the Bethune College. At present there are 31 students at the college and 163 at the collegiate school. His Honour trusts that the Board of Management, the constitution of which has recently been amended, will submit proposals which, in the course of time, Government may be in a position to carry into effect. There were at the end of the year 139,245 girls under instruction in primary schools. On the one hand the number of girls in purely girls' schools has decreased, but on the other hand the number of girls in boys' schools has increased. One method which has been found useful for increasing the number of girls under tuition is to make the payment of stipends conditional upon the attendance of a minimum number of girl pupils, but this plan has its disadvantages; for, as has been pointed out by Mr. James, the girl pupils may remain present in the school, but may be altogether excluded from instruction. Nevertheless His Honour considers that the plan should be encouraged. The Training College at Patna for instructing female teachers in the art of teaching was opened in January 1909 and a Lady Principal recruited in England arrived in February. There have been many difficulties in the management, not the least of which is the entire absence of fit material for training. Nevertheless it is reported that the earnestness of the women students and their eagerness to learn are remarkable. Mr. James points out that the obstructions to any real advance in female education are the lack of teachers, the unwillingness of many parents to pay for the education of their daughters, and the early age at which girls are taken away from the schools.

9. European education.—The total expenditure on the education of Europeans shows an increase of over 3½ lakhs as compared with the expenditure of 1907-08, but 2½ lakhs of this increase came from private sources. The Code for European Schools in Bengal was revised after prolonged discussion in 1908, and during the year under review interest centred in the regrading of the schools in accordance with the provisions of the Code. Since the close of the year the Lieutenant-Governor has found it necessary, on account of certain representations which have been made to him, to suspend the operation of the Code which was to have come into force from the 1st of January 1910. In connection with the education of Europeans, the Lieutenant-Governor is disposed to agree with the view of Mr. James that any education which from the beginning looks beyond the age of 14 in planning a systematic course of study is secondary education. The Inspector of European Schools and the Officiating Director press strongly for the provision of funds for the completion of the scheme for the training college for female teachers. His Honour while admitting that the present arrangements for the instruction of female teachers at the Dow Hill School are not altogether satisfactory, can hold out no hope that funds will be provided in the near future. His Honour, however, is glad to learn of the good work done by Miss Davies at the Dow Hill School. The successes at the Cambridge Senior Local Examination were 20 as compared with 22 in the previous year. In the departmental high school examination 16 passed during the year under review as compared with 18 in the previous year.

10. Training of teachers.—The David Hare Training College, which was opened in July 1908, experienced many difficulties as regards sufficiency of staff and accommodation, but these difficulties have been surmounted to some extent by the zeal of the Principal, Mr. Griffith. It is regrettable that no students, other than teachers in Government schools, have yet joined to undergo a course of training. The Patna Training College was started for Bihari students in October 1908 on modest and experimental lines. The Lieutenant-Governor admits that the interests of the teachers in the Bihar districts cannot be adequately met by a single institution in Calcutta; but the provision of funds for the complete equipment of two training colleges in the Province is a serious demand upon the resources of Government. The vernacular training schools, of which there are nine in the Province, have suffered from the lack of competent instructors and of accommodation. These difficulties, especially the former, are such as only time can remedy.

The Guru training schools form the lever by which in time the whole fabric of primary education may be raised; and considerable expenditure was incurred during the year on these schools. Out of 191 of such schools to be constructed, 54 have been completed; 50 have not yet been commenced, and the construction of the remainder is going on. At the end of the year there were 3,190 gurus under instruction, and 741 of these obtained certificates of competence after a two years' course. The efforts of Government, however, in the direction of improving the quality of teachers for primary schools seemed destined to be frustrated to some extent by the fact that many gurus after their period of instruction do not return to their duties as teachers.

11. Physical and moral training.—The hostel system is gradually advancing. The Engineering Institutions at Sibpur and Bankipore are now entirely residential. The Calcutta mess scheme continues to make large demands on Government. As regards schools the same success has not been achieved as in the case of colleges. It is true that board and lodging are furnished, but in many cases under conditions which are unsatisfactory and which do not promote discipline. During the year the Government of India approved in principle the grant of free quarters to teachers attached to hostels of schools. In connection with physical training in schools and colleges, His Honour has learnt with regret that, while there is much for congratulation, yet there is a tendency to professionalism, especially in connection with foot-ball and an unhealthy emulation which shows a lack of the true spirit of sportsmanship. His Honour trusts that the department will use every endeavour to check these undesirable tendencies. As regards discipline in the best sense of the word, it has still to be learnt in many schools. As Mr. James expresses it, there is an acquiescent discipline; that is to say, there is not an active revolt from discipline. But there is not so much as there ought to be of respect for constituted authority and of the true spirit of active co-operation with authority.

12. General.—Of education in the Province during the period under review, it may be said that it has been marked by numerous efforts after progress which have been hampered by the want of money; and for the future it may be said that while collegiate education has demanded in the past, and is likely to demand in the future, a large share of Government resources, nevertheless such education is a superstructure upon weak foundations wherever the education of character and the enforcement of discipline are not binding elements in the secondary schools. His Honour is in full accord with Mr. James's view that there has been of necessity much which might be characterised as more expansion, and that in the future the aim should be to extend only so far as the occupation can be made effective, especially as finance is the dominant factor in the situation. His Honour has perused with pleasure Mr. James's acknowledgment of the assistance and active sympathy which the Education Department has received from executive and judicial officers throughout the Province. To Mr. Küchler, who was in charge of the department for almost the entire period of the year under review, His Honour expresses his thanks for his careful and zealous administration of the Department, and he acknowledges the assistance given by the Assistant Director, Mr. J. R. Cunningham. His Honour also expresses his thanks to Mr. James for his full and suggestive report.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. G. CUMMING,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

During the week, price of rice fallen in one State, risen in one State and stationary in the remaining States: price of rice varying from 13 seers in Tigiria and Khandpara and 15 seers in Rairakhol and Athmallik to 22 seers in Talcher, Sonpur and Baud and 24 seers in Pal-Lahara and Gangpur.

* The report is for the week ending the 18th December 1909.

General Summary.—Rain was moderate in Purnea and light in other districts of Bihar and also in Orissa and Chota Nagpur. There was no rain in Bengal Proper. The recent rain has been beneficial to the rabi crops, which are doing well. More rain is wanted for rabi crops in parts of Jessore, Patna and Shahabad. Harvesting of winter rice continues. Pressing of sugarcane is in progress in Bihar and Orissa. The price of common rice has risen in Jessore, Darjeeling and Ranchi, has fallen in Midnapore, Nadia, Murshidabad, Gaya, Monghyr, Balasore, Angul, Hazaribagh and Manbhum and has been stationary in the remaining districts. Cattle-disease is reported from Nadia, Patna, Gaya, Monghyr, Purnea, Angul, Sambalpur and Palamau. The fodder and water-supply is sufficient throughout the Province.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken respectively from Dine's pressure tube anemometer and the standard dial anemometer.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall and wind velocity reported on any day are for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION No. 4033F.

Calcutta, the 28th December 1909.

RULES FOR THE DISCUSSION OF THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT IN THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF BENGAL.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Indian Councils Act, 1909, the following rules have been made by the Lieutenant-Governor authorizing, at any meeting of the Legislative Council of the Lieutenant-Governor, the discussion of the annual Financial Statement of the Government of Bengal. The rules have received the sanction of the Governor-General in Council and are now published for general information.

H. WHEELER,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Definitions.

1. In these rules—

(1) "Finance Committee" means the Committee of the Council appointed under rules 2 and 3 to consider and revise the Draft Financial Statement;

(2) "President" means—

(a) the Lieutenant-Governor, or

(b) the Vice-President appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 4 of the Indian Councils Act, 1909, or

(c) the Member appointed to preside under rule 36;

(3) "Finance Member" means the Member of the Council appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to perform the functions of the Finance Member under these rules;

(4) "Member in charge," with regard to any subject under discussion, means the Member of the Council appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to perform the functions of the Member in charge under these rules in respect of the business of the Department of the Local Government to which the subject under discussion belongs, and includes any Member to whom such Member in charge may delegate any function assigned to him under these rules;

(5) "Draft Financial Statement" means the preliminary financial proposals of the Lieutenant-Governor for the financial year next following;

(6) "Revised Financial Statement" means the Draft Financial Statement as revised by the Local Government with the approval of the Government of India after considering the proposals of the Finance Committee;

(7) "Budget" means the Financial Statement as finally sanctioned by the Government of India, after amendment with reference to resolutions passed in Council and accepted by the Local Government or to any special circumstances not previously foreseen; and

(8) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Council, and includes the Assistant Secretary and every person for the time being exercising the functions of the Secretary.

The Draft Financial Statement.

2. On a day not later than the 5th day of January in every year, the Lieutenant-Governor shall appoint a Finance Committee for the purpose of discussing the Draft Financial Statement and making proposals with reference thereto for the consideration of the Local Government.

3. (1) The Finance Committee shall consist of not more than twelve members of whom not more than half shall be nominated by the Lieutenant-Governor.

(2) The remaining members of the Committee shall be elected by the non-official Members of Council by votes given under such procedure as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time prescribe by notification in the Calcutta Gazette.

4. The Finance Member shall be the Chairman of the Committee, and in the case of an equality of votes on any matter shall have a second or casting vote.

5. (1) On a day not later than the 18th day of January in every year, the Local Government shall refer to the Finance Committee the Draft Financial Statement.

(2) The draft shall comprise tabular statements showing—

(a) the opening balance of the Provincial account,

(b) the estimated Provincial revenue under the various major heads of account,

(c) the estimated Provincial expenditure, under specific major heads, on existing establishments and schemes and on new schemes the cost of which is not considerable or which the Local Government considers to be of an absolutely obligatory character,

(d) the amounts available for maximum recurring expenditure and for total expenditure upon other new schemes, the latter being provisionally included under a head 'Unallotted Expenditure,' and

(e) the estimated closing balance.

(3) There shall be appended to the Draft Financial Statement a memorandum indicating as fully as possible the manner in which the Local Government provisionally proposes to allot the sum available for total expenditure on new schemes referred to in clause (d) of sub-rule (2), and also indicating, if thought desirable, alternative methods of distributing this expenditure. In respect of each suggestion thus made, the maximum recurring expenditure, and the total expenditure, (a) recurring and (b) non-recurring, which it is proposed to incur in the next financial year, should be separately stated.

6. The Finance Committee shall consider how the provision made under the head 'Unallotted Expenditure' referred to in clause (d) of sub-rule (2) of rule 5 shall be distributed among the specific major heads and to what purposes the sums thus allotted should be applied:

Provided that—

(i) the total provision for recurring and non-recurring expenditure on the new schemes shall not exceed the amount entered in the Draft Financial Statement as available for these purposes; and

(ii) the limit of recurring expenditure shall be determined with reference to the maximum amount which a scheme will eventually involve, any difference between this figure and the recurring expenditure required to be provided in the Draft Financial Statement under discussion being made up by addition to non-recurring expenditure.

7. (1) The proceedings of the Committee shall be private and informal.

(2) They shall begin not later than the 20th day of January and be completed not later than the 27th day of the same month.

(3) Free discussion shall be allowed, but the Chairman may at his discretion close discussion upon any particular item when he thinks that it cannot be continued with advantage.

(4) Where the question of making any particular provision in the estimates coming within the scope of the Committee's functions is in dispute, the Member in charge shall be heard in its support, and the Committee shall then proceed to vote, the decision being by a majority of votes.

8. The Finance Committee shall submit to the Local Government, not later than the 28th day of January, a report indicating the changes which it recommends in the Draft Financial Statement.

9. After considering the proposals of the Committee, the Local Government shall embody its own conclusions in the Draft Financial Statement, and shall refer the Statement thus amended to the Government of India.

The Revised Financial Statement.

10. (1) The Revised Financial Statement shall be presented to the Council on a day not later than the 15th day of March.

(2) It shall comprise a memorandum by the Finance Member explaining the general financial situation of the province in the current and ensuing years, together with memoranda explaining the estimates of revenue and expenditure under the various major heads, or groups of major heads.

(3) A week before the Revised Financial Statement is presented to the Council, copies of the amended Draft Financial Statement, as provisionally approved by the Government of India at the time, shall be supplied to the Members with a note that the figures and remarks contained in it are liable to alteration.

(4) Copies of the Revised Financial Statement, together with copies of a memorandum detailing the alterations made in the Statement of which copies have been previously supplied, under sub-rule (3), shall be supplied to the Members not later than the day preceding that on which the Statement is presented to the Council.

11. (1) On the day when the Revised Financial Statement is presented to the Council, each head or group of heads in the Statement, which is specified in the schedule appended to these rules as being open to discussion, shall be considered separately according to such grouping as the Member in charge may determine.

(2) The consideration of each such head or group of heads shall be introduced by the Member in charge with such explanations supplementing the information contained in the Revised Financial Statement, as may appear to him to be necessary.

(3) Any Member shall then be at liberty to move any resolution relating to any question covered by any such head or group of heads which may be entered in his name in the List of Business and the Council shall thereupon proceed to discuss every such resolution in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

12. No discussion shall be permitted in regard to any of the following subjects, namely:—

(a) any subject removed from the cognizance of the Legislative Council of the Lieutenant-Governor by section 43 of the Indian Councils Act, 1861; or

(b) any matter affecting the relations of His Majesty's Government or of the Governor-General in Council or of the Lieutenant-Governor with any Foreign State or any Native State in India or relating to the internal affairs of any such Native State; or

(c) except with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, any matter which is the subject of discussion between the Governor-General in Council and the Local Government; or (d) any matter under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of His Majesty's dominions.

13. No resolution shall be moved which does not comply with the following conditions, namely:—

(a) it shall be in the form of a specific recommendation addressed to the Lieutenant-Governor;

(b) it shall be clearly and precisely expressed and shall raise a definite issue;

(c) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of any person except in his official or public capacity.

(d) it shall not challenge the accuracy of the figures of the Revised Financial Statement;

(e) it shall be directly relevant to some entry in the Revised Financial Statement;

(f) it shall not criticise any decision of the Government of India in respect of Provincial finance; and

(g) if it would in itself have the effect of causing the total expenditure of the province to exceed the amount sanctioned by the Government of India, it must propose some counterbalancing reduction in the estimates so as to avoid such excess.

14. A Member who wishes to move a resolution shall give notice in writing to the Secretary, prior to the date on which the Revised Financial Statement is presented to the Council, and he shall at the same time submit a copy of the resolution which he wishes to move:

Provided that the President may fix a date after which no such notice of resolution may be received.

15. The President may disallow any resolution or part of a resolution without giving any reason therefor other than that in his opinion it cannot be moved consistently with the public interests or that it should be moved in the Legislative Council of the Governor-General.

16. (1) No discussion in Council shall be permitted in respect of any order of the President under rule 15.

(2) A resolution that has been disallowed shall not be entered in the proceedings of the Council.

17. Resolutions admitted by the President shall be entered in the List of Business in such order as he may direct.

Discussion of Resolutions.

18. (1) After the mover of a resolution has spoken, other Members may speak to the motion in such order as the President may direct, and thereafter the mover may speak once by way of reply.

(2) No Member other than the mover and the Member in charge shall speak more than once to any motion except, with the permission of the President, for the purpose of making an explanation.

19. No speech, except with the permission of the President, shall exceed fifteen minutes in duration:

Provided that the mover of a resolution, when moving the same, and the Member in charge may speak for thirty minutes.

20. The discussion of a resolution shall be limited to the subject of the resolution, and shall not extend to any matter as to which a resolution may not be moved.

21. A Member who has moved a resolution may withdraw the same unless some Member desires that it be put to the vote.

22. When, in the opinion of the President, a resolution has been sufficiently discussed he may close the discussion by calling upon the mover to reply and the Member in charge to submit any final observations which he may wish to make:

Provided that the President may in all cases address the Council before putting the question to the vote.

23. If any resolution involves many points, the President at his discretion may divide it, so that each point may be determined separately.

24. (1) Every question shall be resolved in the affirmative or in the negative according to the majority of votes.

(2) Votes may be taken by voices or by division and shall be taken by division if any Member so desires.

(3) The President shall determine the method of taking votes by division.

25. (1) The President may assign such time as with due regard to the public interests he may consider reasonable for the discussion of resolutions or of any particular resolution.

(2) Every resolution which has not been put to the vote within the time so assigned shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

26. Every resolution, if carried, shall have effect only as a recommendation to the Lieutenant-Governor.

27. When a question has been discussed at a meeting of the Council or when a resolution has been disallowed under rule 15 or withdrawn under rule 21, no resolution raising substantially the same question shall be moved within one year.

28. The discussion of the Revised Financial Statement shall be closed not later than the 16th day of March or if the discussion commences before the 13th day of March, then on the third day of the discussion.

The Budget.

29. (1) On such day as may be appointed in this behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor, the Budget shall be presented to the Council by the Finance Member who shall describe the changes that have been made in the figures of the Revised Financial Statement, and shall explain why any resolutions passed in Council have not been accepted.

(2) A printed copy of the Budget shall be given to each Member.

30. (1) The general discussion of the Budget in Council shall take place on such later day as may be appointed by the President for this purpose.

(2) At such discussion, any Member shall be at liberty to offer any observations he may wish to make on the Budget, but no Member shall be permitted to move any resolution in regard thereto, nor shall the Budget be submitted to the vote of the Council.

(3) It shall be open to the President, if he thinks fit, to prescribe a time-limit for speeches.

31. The discussion shall be limited to those branches of revenue and expenditure which are under the financial control of the Local Government, and it will not be permissible to enter upon criticisms of Imperial Finance.

32. The Finance Member shall have the right of reply, and the discussion shall be closed by the President making such observations as he may consider necessary.

General.

33. (1) Every Member shall speak from his place, shall rise when he speaks and shall address the chair.

(2) At any time, if the President rises, any Member speaking shall immediately resume his seat.

34. (1) Any Member may send his speech in print to the Secretary not less than two clear days before the day fixed for the discussion of a resolution, with as many copies as there are Members, and the Secretary shall cause one of such copies to be supplied to every Member.

(2) Any such speech may, at the discretion of the President, be taken as read.

35. (1) The President shall preserve order, and all points of order shall be decided by him.

(2) No discussion on any point of order shall be allowed unless the President thinks fit to take the opinion of the Council thereon.

(3) Any Member may at any time submit a point of order to the decision of the President.

(4) The President shall have all powers necessary for the purpose of enforcing his decisions.

36. The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a Member of the Council to preside in his place, or in that of the Vice-President, on any occasion on which the Revised Financial Statement or the Budget or any portion thereof is discussed in the Council.

37. The President for sufficient reason may suspend any of the foregoing rules.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4034F.—The 29th December 1909.—In pursuance of rules 2 and 3 of the Rules for the discussion of the annual Financial Statement in the Bengal Legislative Council, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased—

(1) to appoint a Finance Committee of the said Council for the purpose of discussing the Draft Financial Statement and making recommendations with reference thereto for consideration by the Government of Bengal, and

(2) to declare that the said Committee shall consist of twelve members, namely, six to be nominated by the Lieutenant-Governor, and six to be elected by the non-official members of the said Council.

H. WHEELER,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4035F.—The 29th December 1909.—In exercise of the power conferred by rule 3(2) of the Rules for the discussion of the Annual Financial Statement in the Bengal Legislative Council, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to prescribe the following procedure for the election of six non-official members of the Finance Committee by the non-official members of the Council:—

(1) The election shall be made at a meeting of the non-official members of the Bengal Legislative Council to be held in Calcutta at such time and place as may be intimated to them by the Secretary to the Council by registered letter.

(2) When sending such intimation, the Secretary shall invite each member to declare by registered letter whether he would be willing to serve as a member of the Finance Committee if elected.

(3) The members present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be Chairman.

(4) The Secretary shall attend the meeting, and shall deliver to the Chairman a list of candidates containing the names of all members who have declared their willingness to serve if elected, and to each member present a list of the non-official members of the Council, and shall then withdraw.

(5) The Chairman shall add to the said list of candidates the names of any other members who may declare their willingness to serve if elected, and, upon the conclusion of any discussion that may take place, shall invite the members present to record their votes.

(6) A member shall vote by placing the mark × on the list of members opposite the names of the candidates for whom he desires to vote, and shall then sign the list.

(7) A member may vote for six candidates only, and may not give more than one vote to any one candidate.

(8) When the voting has been completed, the Chairman shall inform the Secretary, who shall thereupon return to the meeting and count the votes.

(9) The Secretary shall report the result of the election to the Chairman at the meeting, and to the Local Government.
